BOOM IN VICINITY OF MATANG IS STILL INTACT

Japanese Make No Progress In Advance From Tianshan On Taihu

CHINESE SCORE A NOTABLE SUCCESS IN ANHWEI

Hankow, July 1. SEVERE FIGHTING EAST AND WEST OF MATANG WAS CONTINUED THIS MORNING but according to reports here the village of Matang is now in the hands of the Japanese. Hsiangkow which is two miles east of Matang is still in possession of the Chinese but its ultimate fate is considered to be uncertain. No change is reported in the situation west of Matang where the hilly country favours the Chinese defensive tactics.

Contrary to Japanese statements it would appear that the boom across the Yangtze River in the vicinity of Matang is still intact. Chinese military circles have not abandoned hope of recapturing Matang and it is pointed out that Japanese troops are still numerically inferior there.

The Japanese advance from Tianshan on Taihu, although supported by tanks and heavy artillery, is reported to have made no progress.

On the other hand considerable movements of troops on both sides are reported from the North China front. It is stated that upwards of 20,000 Japanese now occupy positions on the Taoching Railway which connects the provinces of Honan and Shansi. It is believed that these troops will endeavour to join the Japanese forces in the south of the province of Shansi and that two armies will then attempt to cross the Yellow River together and advance in a southerly direction. (Transocean).

IMPORTANT CHANGES IN THE JAPANESE COMMAND

Peking, July 1. Important changes in the command of the Japanese North China Army were made on Thursday. General Koigu, former Chief of the General Staff of the Kwantung Army and present Governor-General of Korea, took over the supreme command, succeeding General Count Terauchi.

Lt.-General Dohara, known for years as champion of the Japanese policy of expansion in China, became Chief of the General Staff and Lieutenant-General Kita, in charge of the Political Department, was replaced by Lieutenant-General Shiogetsu.

Lt.-General Umetsu took over command of the Japanese forces on the Peking-Hankow Railway. (Transocean).

CHINESE RECAPTURE TAOCHING

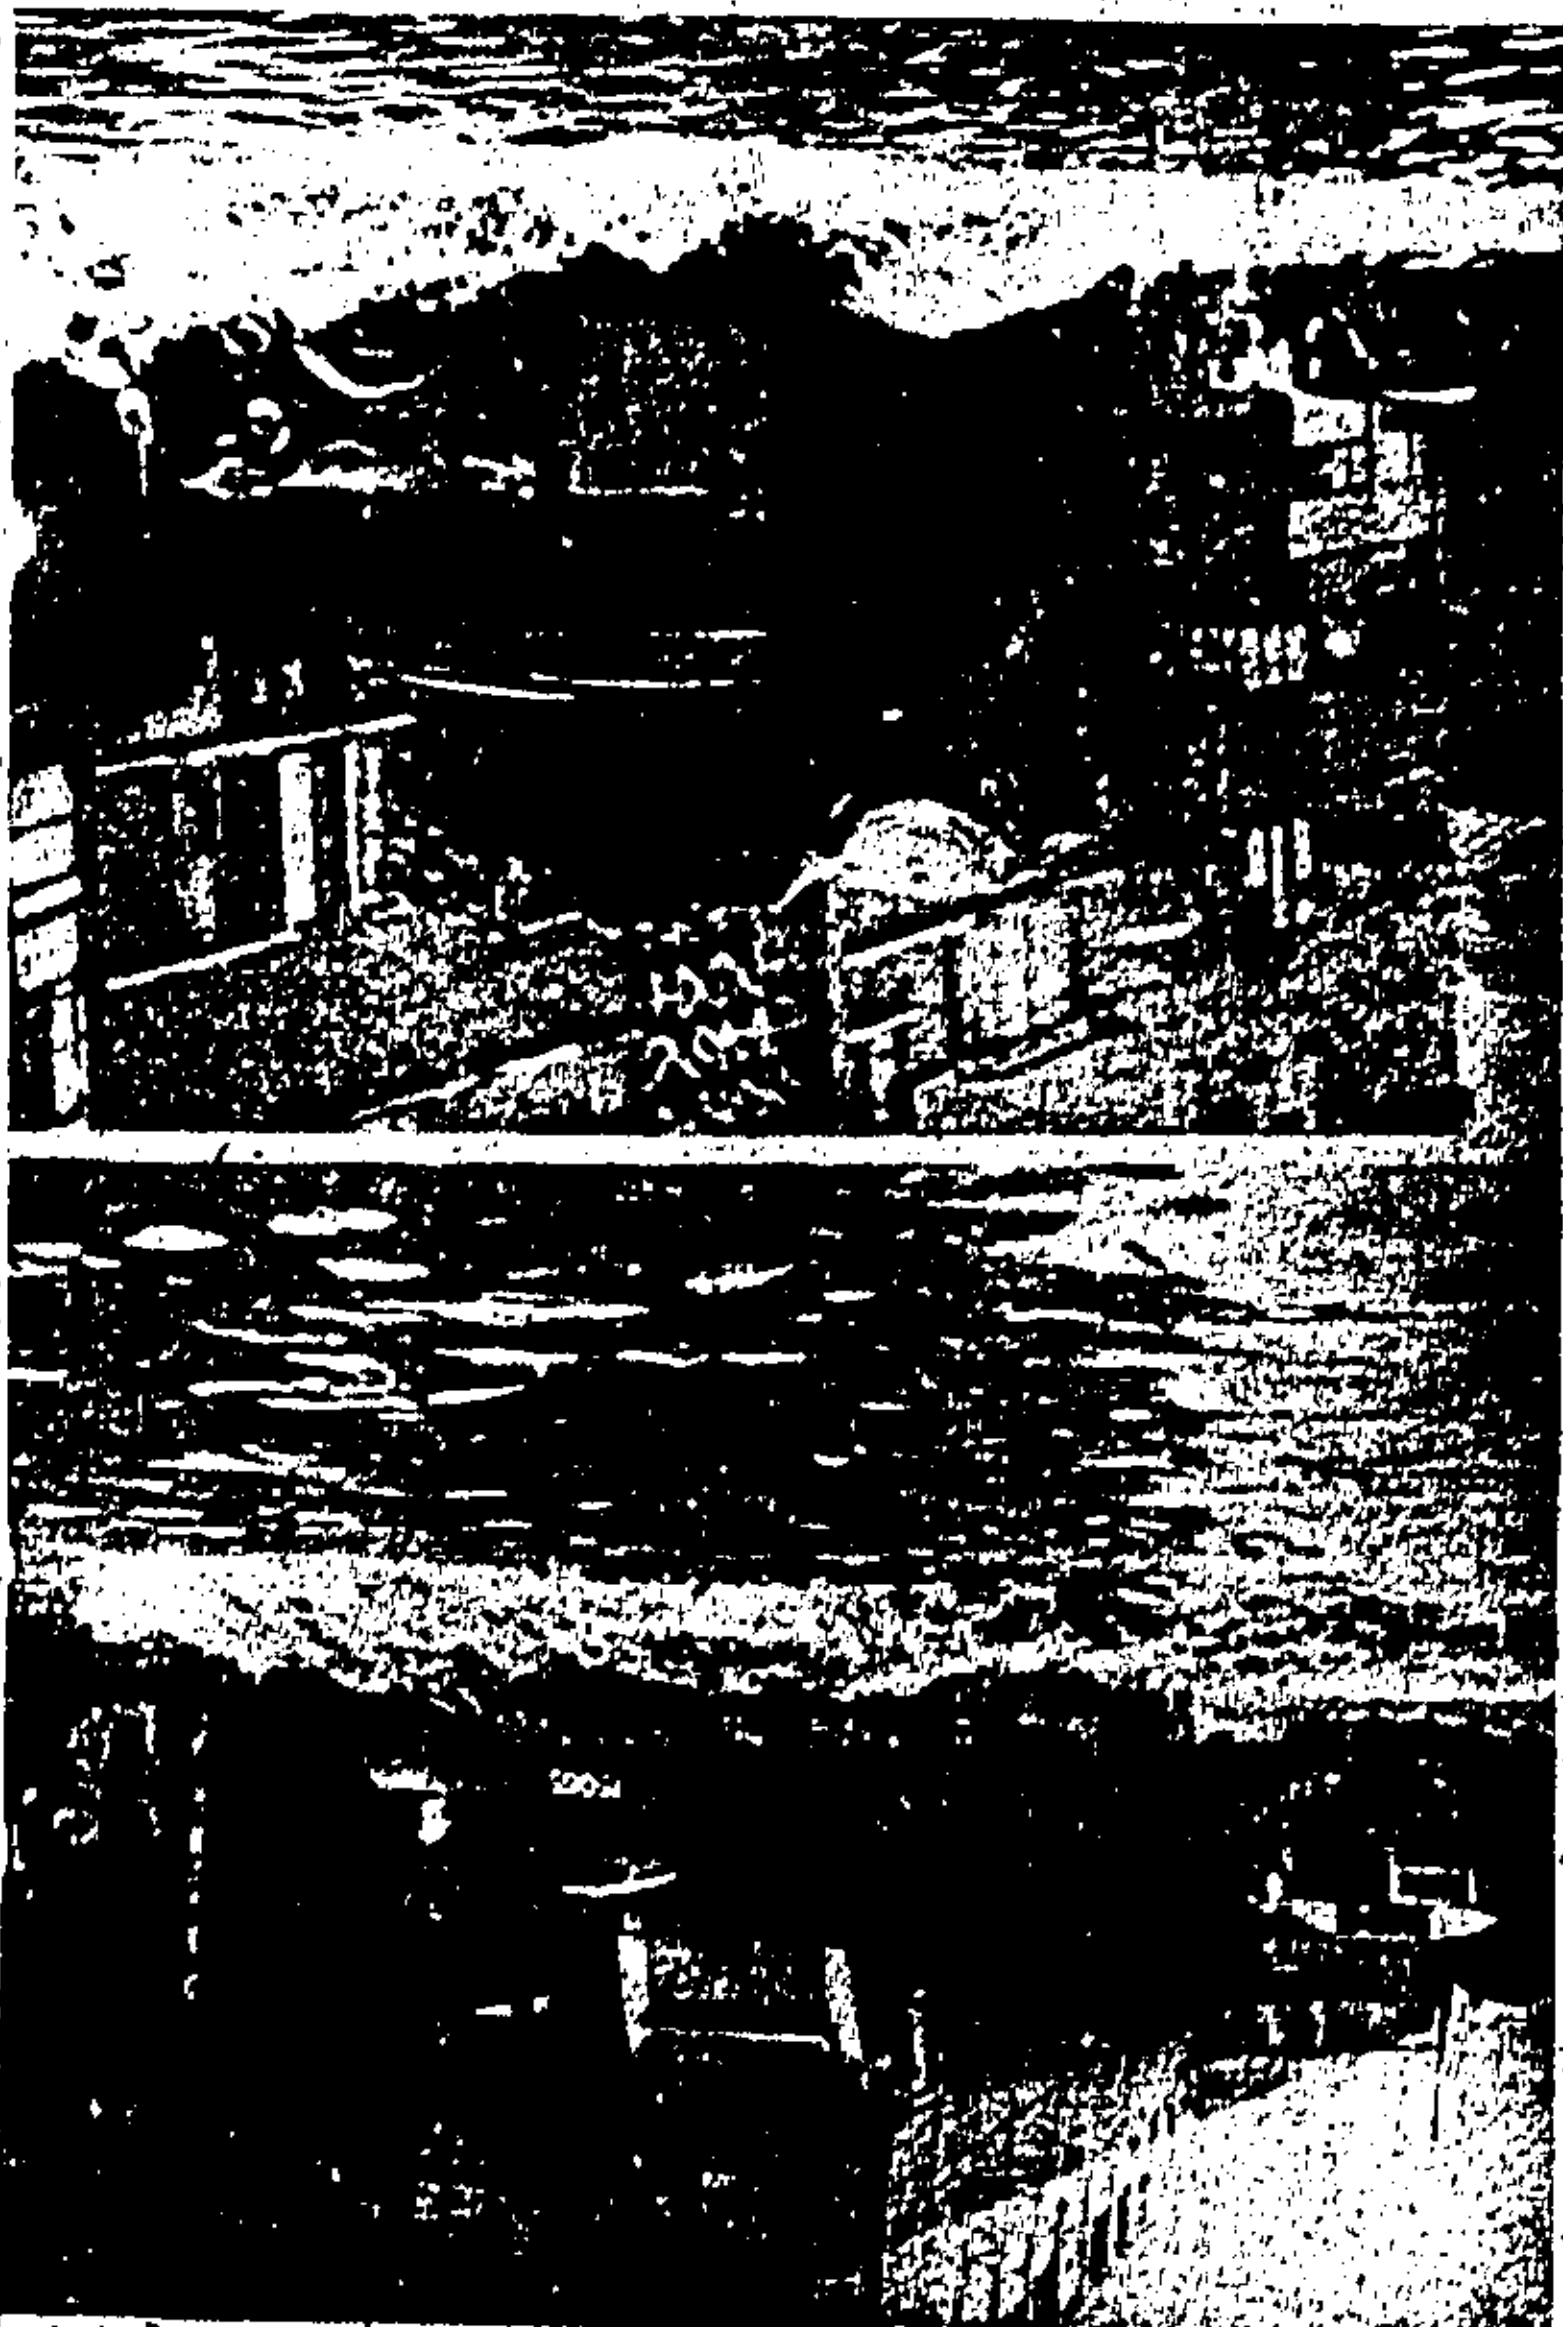

Tunki, Anhwei, July 1. Chinese troops operating in central Anhwei scored a notable success by re-entering the town of Taokicheng on the outskirts of Shucheng on June 28 after routing the Japanese forces there.

The Japanese have retreated toward Sanhochen, on the west bank of the Chao Lake.

About 1,000 Japanese troops, rushing from Hefei to the rescue of their comrades, were attacked and annihilated by Chinese troops before arriving at Shucheng. (Central News).

Another boom is said to have been constructed at Kukou, below Klu-kiang. (Reuter).

FLOODS IN SHANGHAI

Shanghai was badly flooded last week. The above pictures show Bubbling Well Road inundated rendering it difficult for motor traffic. (Photos, C.M.P.S.).

BOMBARDED BY CHINESE TROOPS

Picture shows a watch tower in south Shansi in the course of bombardment by Chinese troops. Watch towers, similar to the one above, were erected by the Chinese to guard against bandits, but were occupied by the Japanese. (Photo, C.M.P.S.).

IMPORTANT MEDICAL TEST CASE DISTINGUISHED OBSTETRICIAN TO STAND TRIAL

London, July 1. An important medical test case against Dr. Aleck William Bourke, distinguished Wimpole Street obstetrician, was heard at the Marylebone Police Court this morning.

Dr. Bourke was committed for trial on a summons alleging that he unlawfully procured the miscarriage of a fourteen-year-old girl at St. Mary's Hospital, Paddington. The girl in the case was the victim of serious offences in connection with which three troopers of the Royal Horse Guards were found guilty and sentenced at the Old Bailey on Wednesday.

The case is arousing tremendous medical interest in view of the important medical and legal principles involved. The Director of Public Prosecution's counsel said that this case was one where defendant has deliberately and openly defied the law for reasons which he thought were good and sufficient.

Bail was granted. (Reuter).

Franco-Turkish Agreement On The Sanjak

Paris, July 1. The imminent conclusion of the Franco-Turkish agreement on the Sanjak is announced in quarters close to the Quai d'Orsay last night. The disputed question of distribution of French and Turkish troops in the Sanjak is understood to have been settled on the basis of full parity.

It is reported that the Sanjak agreement will include a general agreement of friendship between France and Turkey to which great importance is being attached by Paris political circles. (Transocean).

Mass Murder Of Civilians Now Spreads To Swatow

Swatow, July 1. The city was thrown into a state of intense confusion and terror by a terrific aerial bombardment which was first heralded by the appearance at 4.30 p.m. of six large Japanese bombers which roared to and fro overhead. The appearance of a further three machines, making a total of nine, at 5.15 p.m. was the signal for opening up a hail of death and destruction which lasted fully ninety minutes. More than a hundred large bombs were dropped on the various residential parts of the city.

Widespread havoc and heavy casualties were caused which at present is impossible to ascertain.

Reuter's correspondent saw scores of houses and shops in the residential Kialat Road section destroyed and a large number of civilian corpses including the fullest quota of women and children.

The Municipal and Mission hospitals are working overtime and the wounded are now pouring in by the hundreds.

The raiders' objective was apparently the Mayor's office, the Military Headquarters and Power Station but the planes flew at such a great height that accuracy was impossible and the civilian sections became the bloodiest sufferers. Ironically enough, amongst the buildings destroyed was the former Japanese School. (Reuter).

HEAT WAVE IN CANTON

Canton, July 1. A heat wave is sweeping over Canton. The thermometer registered 93 degrees in the shade yesterday, being the highest recorded this summer.

Many cases of prostration have been reported as a result of the sweltering heat. All shops selling cool drinks are doing a roaring business. (Central News).

CHIANG KAI-SHEK DENIES ARMISTICE PLANS

China Will Not Welcome Intercession By Any Foreign Power

FINANCIAL STRUCTURE REMAINS UNSHAKEN

London, July 1. FOR REASONS OF PRESTIGE ALONE THE JAPANESE MUST ATTEMPT TO TAKE HANKOW," declared Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek in an interview with the correspondent of the Daily Express published this morning.

Should the Japanese be successful in occupying Hankow, the Generalissimo said, this would not bring them nearer to victory since the Chinese would merely change their front so that the Japanese would encounter even greater difficulties.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek denied statements to the effect that the British, Italian, French and Swiss Ambassadors would come to Hankow from Hong Kong this week for the purpose of discussing terms for an armistice.

"China will not welcome intercession by any foreign Power for an armistice unless Chinese sovereignty is fully restored," remarked China's leader.

"Today, China is politically united and her people's determination to resist is increasing. The first year of the war ends with China's financial structure unshaken. She has maintained her loan obligations and has steadily decreased an unfavourable trade balance," he added.

"China has transferred many industries inland and has expanded her road and rail communications. China has mobilised women in aid of her defence and has created a citizens army to which the youth of the country is flocking," said the Generalissimo.

"With so many young men and women animated by such a spirit China can never be subjugated by Japan," concluded the Chinese leader. (Reuter and Transocean).

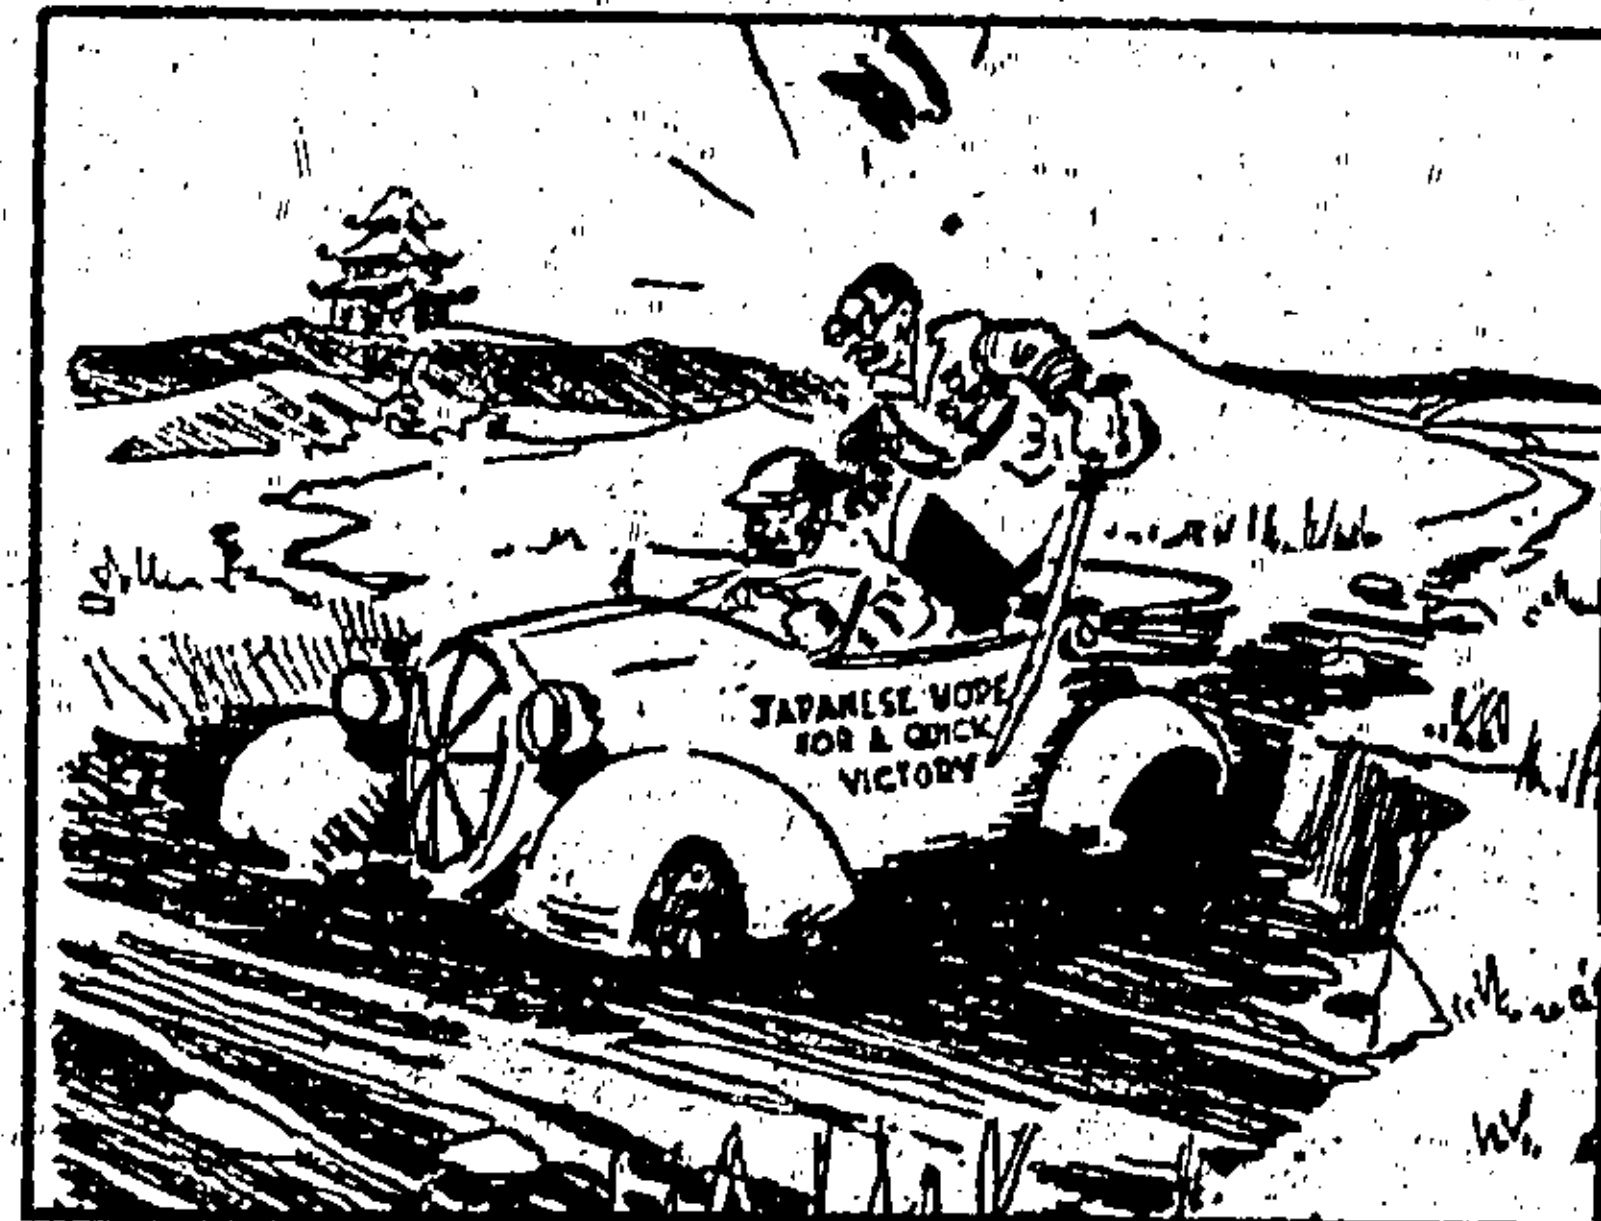

OFFICES IN CHUNGKING

Hankow, July 1. It has definitely been established that the Chinese Government is planning to remove its offices to Chungking in the event of the evacuation of Hankow. All Embassies are also arranging for housing in and transportation to Chungking.

The Ministry of Communications is contemplating establishing its offices in Changsha, in east Honan, where it can more efficiently handle the railway and highway administration than at Chungking.

All the Government and Kuomintang offices are remaining here. (Reuter).

BETTER VALUE THAN EVER

The Gillette No. 77 Set illustrated here, which contains the latest Gillette razor, three Blue Gillette slotted blades and two blade holders in a new type of moulded box, has these definite advantages.

The razor is made in two pieces instead of three, as formerly, thus making it easier and quicker to clean, assemble and use.

The blades are made by the new electrical-tempering process. They give not only closer, cleaner shaves than you have ever had before, but also more shaves per blade.

The case is ideal for hot and humid climates as it is so easy to keep clean.

Ask your dealer to show you a No. 77 Set—one of the most popular that Gillette have ever made.

Singapore Muitsai's Suicide

SEEMED VERY HAPPY AND CONTENTED.

The story of the death of a young mu-tsai, named Khoo Liang-hin, who was found to have committed suicide by taking caustic soda, was unfolded in the Coroner's court in Singapore recently.

Mr. Khoo Heng-pho, of No. 61, Tanjong Rhu, when giving evidence said that the deceased had been brought to him by a Cantonese nun. The child was only 10 to 11 years old then. She was 17 when she died.

Mr. Khoo said that the girl had seemed very happy in her occupation. She had been employed to assist his wife who ran the house.

The deceased had never complained of being miserable, and Mr. Khoo was at a loss to understand the reason for her action.

Her parents were unknown. The child, Mr. Khoo said, had always been treated well. She did the washing for his wife and served drinks and food at times. Other maids were employed for the heavy labour.

ALWAYS BEEN HAPPY.

Mrs. Khoo Heng-pho said that Khoo Liang-hin had always been happy. It was true that the deceased had been in the possession of caustic soda which had been left over from Chinese New Year.

Witness said that on the evening of May 10, she and her husband heard groans. On investigating they found the girl lying on the floor, obviously in great agony and unable to speak. Mr. Khoo administered Chinese medicines in an effort to restore her, at the same time sending for a doctor.

In the meantime, both Mr. Khoo and his wife tended the suffering girl. Her lips were swollen and occasionally blood issued from her mouth. This was wiped away with a towel. Mr. Khoo did not notice any cup nearby and neither did his wife. It was his young son who found the cup which contained a strong solution of caustic soda. This was removed and, together with a towel which had been used to wipe the lips of the deceased, sent to the General Hospital. The arrival of the doctor was not long delayed and he immediately recognised the symptoms of poisoning.

EMPLOYERS NOT BLAMED

An ambulance was sent for and Khoo Liang-hin was removed to hospital. Neither Mr. nor Mrs. Khoo saw the deceased again except when they went to identify the body at the mortuary.

Two servants of Mr. Khoo who were cross-examined said that they knew the dead girl. She had always seemed happy until about three weeks before her death. She formed the habit of taking her food away to some secluded place to eat it, and would not answer when asked to explain her conduct. On one occasion she had been discovered applying lighted matches to her clothing.

A special jury returned a verdict of suicide, finding nothing against the treatment the deceased had received from her employers.

JUDGE DEFINES "DESERTION"

An important pronouncement on desertion, one of the new grounds for divorce, was made by Mr. Justice Goddard at Newcastle Assizes recently.

"People who have been living apart for a long time," he said, "are now rushing to the courts for divorce on grounds of desertion."

"Desertion is a matrimonial offence, and if there is desertion there must have been wrongful desertion on the part of either husband or wife. That is withdrawing cohabitation without the consent of the other."

"If a man and his wife quarrel, the wife takes herself off, and good riddance, that is not desertion."

UNCLAIMED TELEGRAMS

The following unclaimed radio telegrams are lying at the office of Cable and Wireless, Ltd.:

Tinan Kremlin, from Baguio; Fernando Ocampo, Peninsula Hotel from Manila; Well, from Chungking.

It is learned that due to the guerrilla activities northeast of Peiping, the Customs officers at Kupeikow and the employees of the branch of the "Hopi Provincial Bank" at Miyun fled to Peiping a few days ago.

WEST CHINA ABREAST OF WORLD AFFAIRS

The powerful Chinese Government radio station at Chengju, near Shanghai, which was removed just before it came under Japanese naval gunfire last year, has been set up outside Chengtu, capital of Szechuan. It is now functioning as usual with an additional international broadcasting service under the direction of the Central News Agency, which maintains branches in all cities of the south-west.

Chinese in the south-west provinces, like those in other parts of China not occupied by the enemy, are well-informed daily of world affairs through the connections of the Central News Agency. A Chinese concern maintaining close relations with Reuters, Havas, Transocean, United Press, and other international news gathering and distributing organizations.

All Chungking, Chengtu, and other south-west daily newspapers carry reports from these worldwide news agencies, through exchange release of news.

The few important towns in Szechuan still not well supplied with newspapers, have their own means of keeping their citizens informed of the latest news. In Hsinu, a district northeast of Chengtu, for instance, an officer of the district government notes all important news released by the provincial broadcasting station.

Through the network of telephones covering every town and village, some one at each local exchange has the duty of relaying the messages to the people. The public of the district receives its daily news, other than those furnished by newspapers from the larger cities, in the form of wall-newspapers, or bulletins, posted at public places, mostly outside public parks, school grounds, city gates.

According to an official estimate, 40 per cent of the people read these bulletins. Keeping the public informed of current events inside and outside China is now considered one of the most important items of the mass education programme. (China Information Committee).

Developments In New Life Movement

Following a recent conference convened by Madame Chiang Kai-shek and attended by fifty Chinese women leaders, the women's work of the New Life Movement is being rapidly expanded to cope with the exigencies of wartime.

A vigorous women's industrial department is being organized under the leadership of Miss Yu Ching-tang, an education expert. Experts have already outlined the plan whereby thousands of village women, far in the interior, will be supplied with simple weaving machines.

Should communications with the outside world become difficult for the rural dwellers they will be able to produce cloth in reasonable quantities. Preference will be given to refugees so that they may readily become established in the new areas to which they have fled.

The earnings of these tens of thousands of women in the villages will make it possible for them, Madame Chiang says, to help in wartime production.

All this work will be carried on by a skeleton staff of women, who, because many of them are volunteers, will reduce the office overhead to a minimum and thus make it possible for a larger percentage of the earnings to go to the workers.

An enlarged committee of some forty women, resident in various provinces, is already co-operating with Madame Chiang Kai-shek in making this and other undertakings of the New Life Movement.

The National Women's Relief, which has been caring for suffering humanity in the war zones and behind the lines, is perhaps the best known of all the wartime activities of the women's section of the New Life Movement, and the more recently organized orphanages for children are a very good second.

It is significant that all the women of China are now looking to Madame Chiang Kai-shek for leadership in this immense task and, at the same time, enabling thousands of refugee families to re-establish themselves beyond the range of the invaders' bombs and artillery. (C.I.C.)

CATHOLIC NEWS AND NOTES

THE PRECIOUS BLOOD HOSPITAL

Tomorrow, the Hospital in Shamshuipo celebrates its patronal feast of the Precious Blood of Christ. It is cared for by the Sisters of a Congregation which bears this name—Chinese Sisters, whose devoted work for sick children is now well known.

It is only in recent years that the Colony discovered this Hospital. It was working quietly, almost unknown, for many years. A certain number of doctors, both Chinese and Europeans, and a certain number of non-professional persons of various creeds, were interested in the work and helped it by attending it professionally or giving it support. When its work extended they urged that the accommodation should be increased, and now the hospital has far outgrown its modest beginnings.

It is difficult to over-estimate the good work done in this hospital for the poor children and for their mothers, and no one who knows the district can doubt the need for such an institution. Near the Hospital there is a soup kitchen where nourishing soup is given each day to mothers of young children who are attending the hospital. The care of this kitchen is in the hands of a group of European ladies who have taken it up as a voluntary work of charity.

ON THE HEIGHTS OF ABRAHAM

Everyone who is familiar with Canadian History, or even those who have read Sir Gilbert Parker's "Seats of the Mighty," know the name of the Heights of Abraham, that figured so prominently in the famous siege of Quebec. The account of the capture of the heights is one of the most stirring episodes in history, because of its daring and ingenuity.

The Heights were the scene of quite another event a week ago when the great plain there was the site of a National Eucharistic Congress that drew people from all parts of Canada. At midnight last Saturday, Mass was celebrated there at twenty altars and it was calculated that one hundred thousand people were present and received Holy Communion. During all the preparations the fullest facilities were given by the authorities for the carrying out of this remarkable celebration. The Midnight Mass was only one of the many events that formed part of the Congress last week.

AN AMERICAN POET PRIEST

Perhaps it is the reference to the name Abramam that brings to mind the patriot poet of the Southern States of the United States—though he spelled his name differently—Fr. Abram Ryan. They are preparing to celebrate this year the centenary of his birth, and already the Governor of Tennessee has coined a popular name for him, "The Tom Moore of Dixie."

He is not widely known outside of "The South" though he was quoted in a Hong Kong paper recently, but his memory is preserved with undying affection in the States that formed the Confederacy. He was born in Maryland, and he lost a brother in the Civil War. He was himself a chaplain with the Confederate Forces, and during the war his courage was legendary. His stirring poems were however, as an English critic said, "the finest thing that came out of the internecine struggle between North and South."

"The Conquered Banner" is probably his best known poem, though every school child in Dixie can quote many others. He wrote some very good poetry of a mystical kind, but he lived too busy a life to give to his poems the care that they demanded if they were to rank high. Patriotic themes suited him best, and he often interrupted his work and wrote one down with hardly a pause for consideration or correction. Like all who are devoted to poetry he died a very poor man, but in his case this was largely due to his boundless charity to the poor.

EXPLORER COMMEMORATED ON A STAMP

Some of the papers recently gave a picture of the stamp issued in honour of Dr. Charcot, the famous Arctic explorer who died in the Pourquol Pass when it was wrecked off Iceland. Part of the revenue from this stamp is to be devoted to the "Apostolate of the Sea," an organisation which cares for the religious and social welfare of the men at sea.

The chief reason for this assistance is in recognition of the work done by the Society in connection with the hospital ships in the fishing grounds off Iceland and Newfoundland. One of the side activities of these hospital ships is to look after the correspondence of the fishermen, not an easy task considering the wide area in which they move. In the years since they have begun to deal with the correspondence, they have handled more than 1,180,000 letters.

EDUCATION FOR THE PUBLIC OF SIKANG

Lolos On The Screen

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT)

To better understand and appreciate the life of the Lolos, Miao, and other aboriginal tribes of China's frontier provinces, especially those in Sikang, the only territory of the Republic which has not yet procured the status of a province, the Ministry of Education of the National Government, in co-operation with the University of Nanking now temporarily located at Chengtu, Szechuen, is screening scenes of the costume, sights, and various activities there for public education, for the benefit of the inhabitants native and outside.

Radio, movies, and other forms of demonstration are being used by government officials in Sikang for the benefit of popular education in line with the programme for the assimilation of China's native of the natives, which has been so far successful.

More than 100,000 Miao alone along China's south-western frontiers are ready to respond to the call of the Central Army of the Chinese Republic for service, according to Miss Kao Yu-kwei, a Lolo princess from Kweichow and Yunnan, who recently visited Chungking, Szechuen, with Miss Yui Chi-tsai, another aboriginal society leader.

They are carrying to the Generalissimo at Hankow from the far south-west, on behalf of a number of Lolo and Miao chiefs, a goodwill tribute of a saddle, a roll of holy scripture, a Buddhist image, two Buddhist paintings, a jar, all significant of good luck personally made by members of a tribal chief family. In addition a delegation of Sikang and Tibet natives is visiting the front with more than 400 Tibetan articles of comfort for the officers and men now fighting at the front.

READY TO RESPOND

Miao in Yunnan appear to be quite ready to respond to the effort of the Chinese Government on behalf of their social welfare and, according to Miss Kao, 14 primary schools there exclusively for Miao children are well attended, in addition to a normal training class for Miao young men and women. Many men among the Yunnan aborigines are ready to serve in the Chinese Army.

Going to Hankow and the war front at or about the same time to see the Generalissimo and cheer the men now on the fields of war, besides Miss Kao and Miss Yui, is a delegation of Sikang and Tibet natives.

Since the war for self-defense, both the inhabitants of the China proper and those on the frontiers have come to appreciate one another more, and in the museum of West China Union University, Chengtu, there is a very good collection of exhibits showing the life and habits of the frontier natives.

Dr. D. C. Graham, of the university faculty, has been spending some time in the study of the people of the west, having made frequent trips outside Szechuen, China and missions in Kiating, south Szechuen, have also extended.

RESERVE FLEET FLAGSHIP
H.M.S. Effingham has completed large repairs and rearming as a 6in. gun cruiser at Devonport and the flag of Vice-Admiral M. K. Horton, C.B., D.S.O., Commanding the Reserve Fleet, was transferred to her from the Hawkins. Captain B. A. W. Warburton-Lee has been appointed from the Hawkins to the Effingham, in continuation of his appointment as Flag-Captain and Chief of Staff.

During her reconstruction, which began in 1936, the horse-power of the machinery of the Effingham has been reduced from 85,000 to 60,000, and her nominal speed by half a knot to 30 knots. In place of her former armament of seven 7.5in. and three 4in. anti-aircraft guns, she now has nine 6in. and four 4in. A.A. guns. The torpedo tubes have been reduced from five to four. The Effingham begins a cruise around the British Isles this week, visiting Rosyth, Lerwick, Bangor, Campbeltown, and Brixham, and returning to Portsmouth on July 23.

RESIDENT OFFICER AT FREETOWN
The June Navy List shows that Commander John Harding, who was recently appointed to H.M.S. Amphion, Africa Station flagship, for intelligence staff duties, has taken up the post of Resident Naval Officer at Freetown, Sierra Leone.

CRUISE OF THE YORK
H.M.S. York, flagship of Vice-Admiral S. J. Meyrick, will call at Kingston, Jamaica, before beginning her cruise through the Panama Canal to the coast of British Columbia, where she will be till September.

INTELLIGENCE DIVISION
Paymaster Lieutenant-Commander W. C. S. Tighe will join the Naval Intelligence Division for duty in succession to Paymaster Lieutenant-Commander D. A. Wilson. Paymaster Lieutenant-Commander Tighe has been Assistant Secretary to the Commander-in-Chief, East Indies, and is an interpreter in Italian and Russian.

MAXIMUM TONNAGE OF BATTLESHIPS FIXED

Result Of Negotiations On Escalator Clause

London, July 1.

The First Lord of the Admiralty, Mr. A. Duff Cooper, announced in the House of Commons yesterday that the naval agreement concluded by Britain, the United States and France in 1936 had been supplemented by an agreement which raises the tonnage limit for battleships from 35,000 to 45,000 while retaining the previous maximum calibre for heavy guns of 16 inches.

Mr. Duff Cooper explained that the maximum tonnage of 45,000, which was exceeding the tonnage limits proposed by the British Government, was the lowest limit on which an agreement could be reached.

The supplementary agreement now concluded, he added, resulted from the parleys recently conducted by naval experts of the three Powers regarding the application of the escalator clause of the 1936 Pact.

Mr. Duff Cooper, moreover, announced that simultaneously with the supplementary agreement between Britain, America and France, the British Government had concluded an agreement with Germany which supplements the Anglo-German Naval Pact and modifies that pact by fixing the maximum tonnage of battleships at 45,000 tons and the maximum calibre of guns at 16 inches.

The British Government, furthermore, the First Lord of the Admiralty announced, had notified all Powers with which Britain had signed naval agreements that Britain does not intend to build battleships exceeding a tonnage of 40,000 tons. The British Government expressed the hope that other Powers might likewise not exceed this tonnage.

Two British battleships now under construction would be mounted with 16-inch guns and would not surpass a tonnage of 40,000.

Mr. Duff Cooper finally announced that negotiations with Soviet Russia for the conclusion of an agreement fixing a maximum tonnage for battleships at 45,000 tons had been opened but were not yet concluded. He expressed the hope, however, that a satisfactory reply from the Soviet Government will be received at an early date... (Transocean).

HELIUM FROM THE AIR

Experts Discover New Process

The German Academy for Aviation Research has held a meeting in honour of the centenary of Count Zeppelin's birth. The daughter of Count Zeppelin, Countess von Brandenstein-Zeppelin, and Dr. Eckener were present.

General Milch, Permanent Under-Secretary of State, said that the Zeppelin could no longer be used in war, and had become, therefore, a pure instrument of peace.

The attitude of the United States in cutting off the supply of helium, which alone could prevent such accidents as the destruction of the Hindenburg last year, was difficult to understand. It would not, however, prevent Germany from continuing the construction of Zeppelins.

It is understood that a new process has been discovered by the German research experts whereby helium can be obtained from the air. The process is costly, but that will not stand in the way of Germany if she can, by its development, free herself from her dependence on the outside world for a supply of this product.

"Daughter of Daring" Still

Acts Hazards for the Films

Helen Gibson tumbled down the stairs the other day at a Hollywood studio. She collected an abrasion, a bruise and her pay. The next day she did her act again. She was paid again.

Stair tumbling isn't in the repertoire of Hollywood's stars. It's the business of a stunt actress. It is Helen Gibson's job.

Those who can remember twenty-three years ago, and the events in the realm of the theatre at the time, will remember Helen Gibson. She was a "Daughter of Daring," one of the aerial queens of the day. She did stunts then, many.

In "Condemned Women," Miss Gibson is cast as a prison matron for RKO Radio's melodrama which features Sally Eilers, Louis Hayward and Anne Shirley. Lee Patrick shoots her, and she tumbles head from the first steel stairs which she was working against a fallbreak.

Helen's act, she admitted, was the toughest since air days when she did anything in stunts. For doubles and stunt actresses were not known in her mature heyday. In 1910 Helen joined Miller Brothers 101-Ranch Show as a bareback rider. The late Thomas Ince bought the show to make westerns for 101-Bison Pictures. Each day, Helen and her circus companions rode from Santa Monica to Topanga Canyon five miles away to ride for Ince's cameras. The pay was $8 a week. Rather than be a "hardy" but womanly pioneer with the covered wagons, she put on the costume of an Indian and rode bareback because it was "more fun."

Later, Helen joined the Kalem Company as a contemporary of the late Ruth Roland. Soon she was made the heroine of a blood and thunder serial, "The Hazards of Helen." Her pay was $35 a week. She jumped from a horse to a railroad train, from a train to a horse, from a motorcycle to a train or automobile, with every variation.

One day the studio manager watched her drive a team of horses under a viaduct and grasp a dangling rope, hoisting herself to the street above. He raised her pay $15.

Later Universal cast her in "The Daughter of Daring," and she continued her hazardous feats, adding the stunt of having her hands tied in her role of a prison matron in

"Condemned Women"

to a railroad tie to be released when the train cut the ropes.

Like most actresses and actors of 1922, she wanted to be her own producer. Miss Gibson took her savings, $15,000, and made "Nine Points of the Law." In guaranteeing the film editors salaries, she lost her picture, and with it, her investment. She was able to make personal appearances with the picture and earn $300 a week. That was her profit.

The actress went back to work again but she had been out of touch with production so long that many had forgotten her. She finally obtained a contract but the producer failed before she could complete her picture. Then she came ill and spent a long period in the hospital. Finding relief difficult to obtain, she joined Ringling Brothers Circus as trick rider during 1924-5-6.

"When I returned to Hollywood I found most of my friends and former stars working as extras and bit players," Miss Gibson said. "I just stuck my pride in my pocket and did the same thing."

"Condemned Woman" is showing at the Alhambra Theatre.

WHO TOLD YOU THAT?

"Now then, young man, you come with me," said father sternly.

"You're not going to thrash me, are you, father?" quavered the small boy.

"Yes, I am. Didn't I tell you this morning that I'd settle with you for your bad behaviour?"

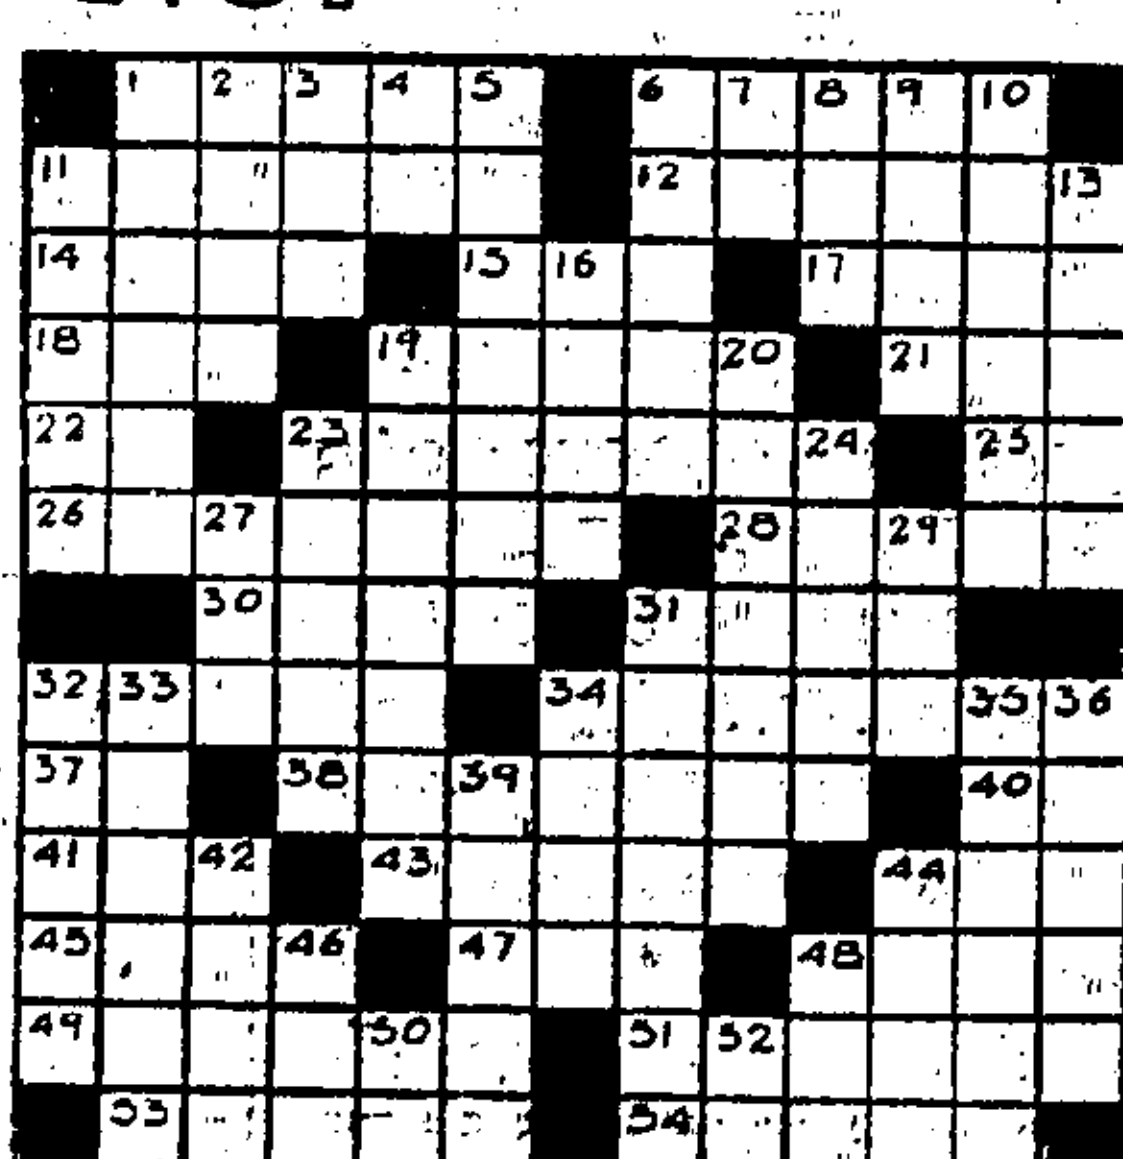

"Yes," answered the child, "but I thought it was only a joke, like when you tell the grocer you'll settle with him."

FOOT ITCH

Athlete's Foot

According to the Government Health Bulletin No. E-28, at least 50% of the adult population of the United States are being attacked by the disease known as Athlete's Foot.

Usually the disease starts between the toes. Little watery blisters form, and the skin cracks and peels. After a while, the itching becomes intense, and you feel as though you would like to scratch off all the skin.

BEWARE OF IT SPREADING

Often the disease travels all over the bottom of the feet. The soles of your feet become red and swollen. The skin also cracks and peels, and the itching becomes worse and worse.

Get rid of this disease as quickly as possible, because it is very contagious and it may go to your hands or even to the under arm or crotch of the legs.

Most people who have Athlete's Foot have tried all kinds of remedies to cure it without success. Ordinary germicides, antiseptics, salve or ointments seldom do any good.

HERE'S HOW TO TREAT IT

The germ that causes the disease is known as Tinea Trichophyton. It buries itself deep in the tissues of the skin and is very hard to kill. A test made shows it takes 15 minutes of boiling to kill the germ; so you can see why ordinary remedies are unsuccessful.

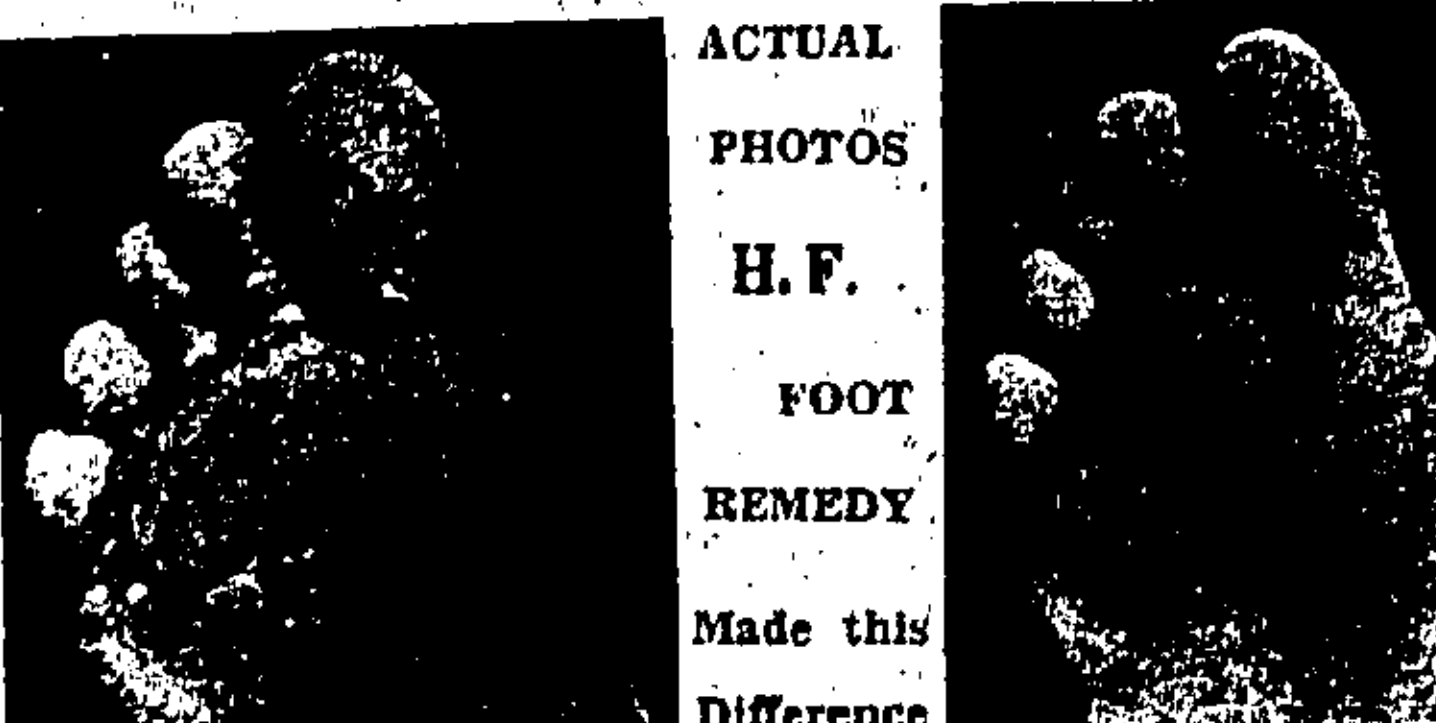

H. F. was developed solely for the purpose of treating Athlete's Foot. It is a liquid that penetrates and dries quickly. You just paint the affected parts. It peels off the tissue of the skin where the germ breeds.

ITCHING STOPS IMMEDIATELY

As soon as you apply H. F. you will find that the itching is immediately relieved. You should paint the infected parts with H. F. night and morning until your feet are well. Usually this takes from three to ten days, although in severe cases it may take longer or in mild cases less time.

H. F. will leave the skin soft and smooth. You will marvel at the quick way it brings you relief; especially if you are one of those who have tried for years to get rid of Athlete's Foot without success.

BREACH OF PARLIAMETARY PRIVILEGE, FINDING

COMMITTEE HEADED BY PREMIER INVESTIGATES ARMY COUNCIL ORDER TO MR. DUNCAN SANDYS

Alleged Leakage Of Defence Secrets

London, July 1. In the HOUSE OF COMMONS last night, the Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, reported that the Committee of Privileges had found that a breach of privileges of the House had been committed in connection with the order of the military court to Mr. Duncan Sandys (Unionist Member for Norwood) to appear in uniform before it in connection with the alleged leakage of defence secrets.

THE PRIME MINISTER said that the Committee, however, did not recommend further action.

Mr. Chamberlain moved the appointment of a Select Committee consisting of nine members of the Government and five members of the Opposition to inquire into the substance of Mr. Sandys's allegations regarding the action of the Ministers concerned and generally into the question of the applicability of the Official Secrets Act to Members of the House of Commons in the discharge of their Parliamentary duties.

APPROVAL OF BRITISH PLAN FOR SPAIN IS SOUGHT

London, June 1. A plenary meeting of the Non-Intervention Committee will be held on July 5, when 27 Non-Intervention states will be asked to approve the British plan for the withdrawal of foreign volunteers from Spain.

The Sub-Committee today reached an agreement on the financial aspects of the scheme, with the exception of certain matters, and details disputed by the Soviet Russian delegate.

It is understood that, despite Soviet objection, the other members of the sub-Committee are determined to proceed with the scheme. (Reuter).

HUNGARIAN STATESMEN TO VISIT ITALY

Budapest, July 1. It is learned that Dr. Bela von Imredy, the new Hungarian Premier, and Dr. von Kanya, Hungarian Foreign Minister, will pay a visit to Rome in the second half of July for the purpose of conducting far-reaching political and economic conversations with the Duce and with Count Ciano.

An official announcement on this matter of Italo-Hungarian collaboration is expected at the end of next week. All arrangements will then have been made with regard to the date and diary of the visit. (Transocean).

Pope Requests Japan To Stop Bombing Of Civilians

Rome, July 1. His Holiness the Pope has been impelled, by reason of the destruction wrought in various cities in China by the recent air raids carried out by Japanese planes, and out of a sense of justice and Christian charity, to authorise the Apostolic Delegate in Tokyo, Mr. Marella, to urge the Japanese Government to take the necessary steps to avoid all unnecessary bombardments of open towns.

Replying to the Vatican's intercession, the Japanese Foreign Secretary, General Ugaki, states that the action of His Holiness the Pope is appreciated by Japan and that everything compatible with military exigencies will be done to spare the civilian population of China.

The Japanese Government is prepared to consider proposals in this direction, General Ugaki declared.

"His Holiness the Pope has greatly welcomed this declaration by the Japanese Government, and is confident that his plea for the confinement of war damages to the greatest possible minimum will show tangible results to the benefit of all concerned," states the Osservatore Romano, official organ of the Vatican. (Transocean).

SCHUSCHNIGG MAY BE PROSECUTED

Berlin, July 1. Authoritative quarters refuse to state definitely whether Dr. Otto Schuschnigg, pre-anschluss Chancellor of Austria, will be prosecuted. Opinion is generally expressed, however, that the ex-Chancellor will eventually appear before the Peoples' Court to answer incessant demands by Austrian Nazis for his punishment. (Reuter).

RELENTLESS AIR RAIDS ON SPANISH TOWNS

Women And Children Massacred

Barcelona, July 1. Insurgent aircraft again bombed Barcelona and the neighbouring towns yesterday. Considerable damage was caused, especially in Badalone, a coastal town of about 29,000 inhabitants 18 miles north-east of Barcelona.

According to official figures, 44 people, including 10 women and six children, were killed at Badalone and 30 buildings in the centre of the town were completely demolished.

Eye-witnesses of the raid said that the insurgent bombers descended to about 1,000 feet before releasing their bombs. One of the bombs fell near the market place, where a large part of the population had gathered to shop.

The harbour town of Denia, southern terminus of the coastal railway to Valencia, was also bombed, but only slight damage was caused. (Transocean)

SEGORBE BOMBED
Madrid, July 1. Sixteen were killed and 80 injured in an insurgent air raid yesterday on Segorbe, 20 miles west of Sagunto. (Reuter).

No more nerves?
Not since I started with
SANATOGEN

Nervousness, fatigue, forgetfulness and many other symptoms often hamper the full enjoyment of life. You can become fit and healthy again with a course of Sanatogen.

Sanatogen contains just those elements which give new health and energy to the run-down organism in a very digestible form. It strengthens the nerves, renews the red blood cells and thus gives new strength and stamina to the whole system.

Prof. Tobold, a well-known European authority, wrote:

"Those who are suffering from nervous weakness will soon regain their former strength and joy of life."

GOOD NEIGHBOUR POLICY URGED BY ROOSEVELT

New York, July 1. Laying the corner stone of the Government building for the projected World's Fair yesterday, President Roosevelt urged the world to adopt a "good neighbour" policy.

The affairs of many parts of the world, said the President, were somewhat distraught. Such a condition, he contended, accompanied wars and rumours of wars.

"We cannot remain unconcerned," said President Roosevelt. "The policy of good neighbours is not limited to problems relating to war, but also involves trade and the inter-change of culture. (Reuter).

Kwangtung Prepares For Threat Of Japanese Invasion

Will Pay Heavily If They Move On South China

Living under the shadow of constant Japanese military demonstrations and threat of invasion, Kwangtung, the southernmost sea-coast province, is fully prepared for any emergency. This was learned from civil and military authorities in interviews by a special representative of the North-China Daily News. Medical authorities, rice merchants and relief workers are all taking part in these preparations which are being pushed relentlessly. "If the Japanese do invade South China," General Wu Te-chen, Governor of Kwangtung, told the interviewer, "they will have to pay dearly for it."

Information from reliable sources reveals that at least ten Cantonese divisions are in active in the war zones. In addition to these men, 20,000 trained men are being sent to Hankow monthly either as recruits for the Cantonese force at the front, or to gain further training.

Military training is going on in practically every part of the province. This is carried out without any difficulty, as the "villagers are fighters by tradition and have been using arms for centuries for self-defence," Gen. Wu commented.

GIRLS RECEIVING TRAINING

Responsible for the organization of the Citizens' Training Corps in Shanghai when he was Mayor here, Gen. Wu is also directing the training of citizens of Canton. Although official figures are not available, a conservative estimate puts the strength of militiamen in Canton at over 60,000, including university students.

An interesting feature of these preparations is the training of over 100 girls as military officers to be distributed in various villages to train village women for self-defence. Some of them are university graduates and others have studied in high middle schools.

Kwangtung has had enough troops to defend the territory, and reinforcements from Hankow are not necessary at present, according to Gen. Wu. "We must make the best use of our defences," he commented.

Asked if the city of Canton will be defended, Gen. Wu said it was well prepared for a Japanese invasion. Avoiding a direct reply to the question of military leaders of the defunct Nineteenth Route Army and 8th Route Army, generals are engaged in directing military training.

Gen. Wu said all the military officers in the province who are not in active service for the time being are helping to strengthen coastal and other defences.

EVACUATION OF CANTON

The authorities in Canton are making all preparations for the evacuation of the populace in case of emergency. Over 20,000 women and children are understood to have registered with police stations for assistance in transportation and other facilities.

Evacuation of Canton will not be a problem in the opinion of the authorities. Communications are convenient and the citizens can go to the surrounding villages at short notice.

The food supply of the province is controlled by a food committee, Gen. Wu revealed. Stocks of rice and other foodstuffs have been kept for an emergency, while every hshen in the whole province has rice in storage.

Arrangements have also been made to establish emergency hospitals along the coast and at important places in case of invasion. Additional beds will be placed in hospitals at short notice.

A warm tribute to the red cross and relief workers in the province, especially those in Canton, was paid by Gen. Wu. They were the first ones on the scene during air raids even while the raiders were still being engaged in the death-dealing mission. Unfortunately a group of red cross workers were machine-gunned by Japanese planes while on duty, according to the Governor.

TRIBUTE TO RAILWAY WORKERS

The courage and efficiency of railway workers were also highly praised. Quick repairs have often been effected by emergency teams along the lines so that the trains experience the least possible delay, according to the Governor.

Turning to the relations of Kwangtung and the Central Government, Gen. Wu said Kwangtung's loyalty to the Government and Gen. Chiang Kai-shek is absolute. Questioned as to the financial and military assistance, if any, from Hankow, Gen. Wu replied that Kwangtung is a part of the Central Government. He declined to supplement the statement with details, however.

Questioned as to the effect of Japanese air raids over Kwangtung, the Governor commented that if the purpose of bombing of open towns was to demoralize people, as was admitted by Japanese themselves, the Japanese military had achieved just the opposite.

Proofs were too many to show that the Chinese people are not easily demoralized. The slaughter of non-combatants, he said, only helped to strengthen the unity and determination of the Chinese Government and people to resist Japanese aggression to the bitter end.

IF JAPAN LOCALIZED WAR

The Japanese military could have done better if they followed their original policy of localizing war, the Governor said. As it was, they had brought all China to her feet to fight the enemy, he emphasized.

In Kwangtung, like in other provinces, indignation and hatred of the people had been aroused to feverish point. The Cantonese were all ready to fight the invaders, he said.

The reconstruction programme of Kwangtung had been suspended by the war, Gen. Wu said. "But we are still assisting the farmers." Usually farmers were given $50 each for each of the two crops in the year, he said. The plans of establishing factories to manufacture tools and fertilizers had to be suspended.

Life in villages in Kwangtung has not been seriously affected by the hostilities, according to Gen. Wu. Referring to loans to farmers, Gen. Wu said they were all honest people and the Provincial Government had no difficulty in collecting them.

Many overseas Chinese who went abroad and became rich have returned to their villages in Kwangtung to build spacious residences, according to Gen. Wu. They are there for show, and villagers belonging to the same family, whether they are in the village or in the city, are all welcome to live in.

Kwangtung is still using small currency. This could have been abolished and substituted with the national currency, had not the war broken out, Gen. Wu said.

ARRESTS ON BORDER

British Soldiers In Chinese Territory

During the past few weeks three British soldiers who, it is understood, had crossed the Shumchun border were arrested by the Chinese authorities. The men were well treated and have since been released.

Consequent upon these arrests, notices have been prominently placed along the frontier warning against trespass on Chinese territory.

SOUTH AFRICA AND CANADA

Accredited Representative Appointed

Announcement was made recently that the Union of South Africa will have an accredited representative in Canada. The position will be substantially the same as that of High Commissioner and although the term is new to Canadian external relations, South Africa used the same title for its permanent representative at Geneva.

Mr. D. de Waal Meyer, South African Trade Commissioner in Montreal since 1934, has been appointed to the post. His duty will be to promote closer contact between the governments of the Dominion and the Union and to foster existing political and commercial relations.

South Africa, by this announcement, became the first overseas Dominion to name a representative of its government to the government of a sister Dominion.

Mr. Meyer will go to South Africa this month and on his return to Canada will transfer his office from Montreal to Ottawa.

PHOTOGRAPHIC EXHIBITION

A photographic exhibition was held in the White House, Des Voeux Road Central, yesterday when enlargements of snapshots of local views and character studies were on display.

The organisers of the exhibition are the Photo Company, Queen's Road Central, a newly-opened studio. Affiliated with the Photo Company is the Photography Society of South China. This Society tends to afford to camera owners practical experience and research in the art of photography.

The Duke's Driver Now A Doorman At 2s. 6d. A Week

Former chauffeur and friend of the Duke of Windsor, George Ladbroke, the man who drove Mrs. Wallis Warfield across France before the Duke abdicated, now earns his living by opening the doors of cars and taxis at a Mayfair restaurant.

Now the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ladbroke and their four children is a flat in Kensington, S. E.

It used to be a six-roomed, two-bathrooms flat on the first floor of one of the quietest parts of Buckingham Palace.

Ladbroke's wage is 2s. 6d. a week, less 1s. 7d. for health and unemployment insurances, leaving a total of 11d. a week.

But he makes more than £3 a week in tips, and the Treasury pays him a pension of £2 a week for his services to the Duke.

18 YEARS WITH DUKE

Ambable, 6ft., 17st. Mr. Ladbroke was cheerful and optimistic when a reporter saw him.

"I'm all right," he said. "I suppose you'd call it a bit of a come-down, but as long as I'm working and keeping the family all right it's all one to me."

"I was with the Duke for 18 years. When I left him after the abdication you would have thought it would have been easy enough for me to get another job. I had about the best reference anybody could have, but not a bit of it. I had the decency of a job to get work."

JOB ON CONTINENT

"Last summer I went abroad with some Americans, driving them round the Continent. After being with the Duke I naturally know the Continent well. The job lasted 11 weeks and that's the only driving job I've had since December 1936.

"I suppose I could have got a chauffeur's job if I had accepted about £3 a week. I may have had ideas, but that's not enough for me, with all my experience."

"So when I was offered this job as a doorman I accepted it. I earn more than that than I should as a chauffeur, although I should like to get back to driving again with some nice people."

"My hours are from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and then from 6 p.m. to midnight."

DUKE THEIR GODFATHER

"I am going to a new doorman's job soon, and may make a bit more in tips."

"I wouldn't mind earning a bit more as to give the children a good education."

"Noel, aged 16, and Geoffrey, aged 12, won scholarships to the London Polytechnic. They're clever kids."

"Then there's Patrick, aged 11, and Audrey, the youngest."

"The Duke of Windsor is godfather to all three boys. He used to have many a chat with them in the old days."

"It's funny, sometimes, opening doors for the people who used to be the Duke's friends. Some of them recognise me and have a chat."

"Things have changed, but it's no use grumbling."

ed their work, among the aborigines, under direct charge of their native helpers, most of whom have had training in regular Chinese government or missionary schools.

Under the auspices of the Sinica Academia, Dr. Ma Chang-shou and others have recently made extensive investigation of the frontier peoples, paying visits and making friends with the chiefs of the various tribes in Sikang and south Szechuen. Lately along Szechuen-Kweichow and Szechuen-Sikang borders have found marriages between youths of different tribes and this, together with more social intercourse among all sections and classes as being shown by visits of Tibetans to the Chinese Army, would naturally hasten reunification of the Republic, a thing most desirable in time of national crisis.

JAPANESE PLANES RAID HUKOW

Nanchang, July 1.
Nine Japanese planes staged an aerial attack on Hukow, twenty five kilometres below Kinkiang on the south bank of the Yangtse River, at noon today, dropping a number of bombs.

Later the raiders flew to Shintowchen and released several more missiles.

In both of the raids, a large number of civilian houses were demolished.

At the same time, another Japanese plane visited Wusieh, fifty kilometres above Kinkiang on the north bank of the river, to release many bombs. It departed later in the direction of Anhwei. (Central News).

AIR RAID WARNINGS

Country Divided Into A Hundred Districts

By dividing Britain into one hundred separate warning districts and using the telephone to notify each threatened quarter the Air-raid Precautions Department expects to be able to give ample warning of impending attacks, writes a Home correspondent. Details of the national warning system were published recently in "Memorandum No. 8."

Colours have been chosen as the means of informing district leaders of what to expect. When it appears possible that a certain district or districts may be raided a preliminary caution message will be sent to the principal officers of the local services and to those responsible for blast-furnaces, explosives factories, and other industries where fairly long preparations must be made.

The "preliminary caution" message would be confidential in order to avoid unnecessary public alarm and the disclosure of industrial activity if the raid should not take place.

If threat of attack were removed the "preliminary caution" message would be followed by a "cancel caution" message and the public would know nothing about it. If the movement of the raiders supported the belief that a particular district or districts would be attacked the "action warning" message would be distributed to all on the warning list.

The delivery of the "action warning" would be timed to give not less than five minutes' notice of the raiders' approach.

To notify "preliminary caution" the word "yellow" would be telephoned, for "cancel caution" the word is "white," for "action warning" the word "red" would be transmitted, and for "raiders passed" the code word would be "green."

PUBLIC WARNINGS

The memorandum says that public warning signals should be considered broadly along two lines. Industrial towns where populations are congregated may be the targets of hostile attack, and generally public signals should be provided for all such places. Where the population is more scattered, as in rural areas, a complete system of public signals may not be practicable or indeed necessary.

It is suggested that consideration should be given in industrial areas to the existing sirens and hooters, the assumption being that in war-time they would not be used for any other purpose.

Whatever type of signal is used, a code of sounds must be arranged, and it is proposed that a public air-raid warning should be a signal of two minutes' duration, consisting of either a fluctuating or warbling sound of a varying pitch or a succession of intermittent blasts of about five seconds' duration each, separated by silent periods each of about three seconds. The "raiders passed" message would be a continuous signal lasting for two minutes at a steady pitch.

MISSIONARIES
JOIN PROTESTS
ON BOMBINGS

The board of directors of the London Missionary Society, which has over 100 missionaries at work in China, has passed the following resolution:—

That the board views with abhorrence the ruthless bombing of the non-combatant population of Canton and other places in China by the Japanese fighting forces, and would urge the British Government to take all peaceful means to prevent it.

The board also appeals to Churches and individual Christians that special prayer be made for Chinese sufferers from these air raids, and more particularly for the Japanese people, that there may be born in them a horror of this indiscriminate slaughter and that the Christian Church in Japan may be strengthened for its task of correcting the rampant militarism of the Japanese people.

MISSSES TOO
MANY FIRES

Because the Manila Fire Department's red runabout has to be repaired everytime it answers a fire call, Chief Jacinto Lorenzo has asked the Mayor for a new car.

In a letter to the Mayor, Chief Lorenzo asked for 3,000 pesos for the purpose. The 1925 model machine is so decrepit, Chief Jacinto said, it sometimes reaches the scene of the fire after it has been put out.

THERE IS NOTHING the Japanese will not stoop to do to gain their end in China. They think nothing of bombing innocent women and children, housed in open villages and towns. But while they still talk big about their prospects of emerging victorious, they also go about their business of trying to talk China round to what they are happy to call a peaceful settlement.

And so now we have Japan, through the Peiping Government, making an appeal to the Kuomintang Party, with whom she had previously refused to treat, to come to an end.

It is hardly necessary for us to state that the reply of the Chinese Government will not be what Japan is fervently hoping for that is, a reply at all. China's regard for posterity will surely dictate the answer to this insolent overture.

INSOLENT

hostilities so that "all this unnecessary suffering" may be brought to an end.

Szechuan Mourns War Dead

Even a wedding procession, travelling from the home of the bride's parents to the home of the bridegroom—one of the most important processions according to ancient Chinese order to which highest officials going out in state had to give way—had to be halted on Chengtu's Broadway, when a public memorial service in honour of the Szechuanese war dead on the northern and eastern Chinese battlefronts was held in the provincial capital, recently.

When the honour-rolls of the gallant dead passed the closed wedding car the young man and the young woman saluted and bowed reverently.

The mothers in every home that morning had to rise early in order to dress their young ones for the parade to follow the public worship.

Most of them had the names of friends or relatives immortalized on the honour-roll, in tablets first exhibited at the Junior City Park but later preserved in the Temple of Loyalists, ancient heroes who had defended the country against foreign forces.

TWO HOURS PARADE. Though the parade, consisting of contingents of many public and private organizations, schools and army details, marching two units abreast, it took nearly two hours to pass a given point.

One of the inspiring features was that both young children and grandmothers marched among those who had lost relatives in action. Some women, who had to be assisted by younger ones along the line, wore ceremonial dress, the same costume in which by custom they would be dressed when their turns came to go the way of their beloved and heroic relatives whose joint tablet they that day escorted to the city's hall of fame.

In connection with the memorial service for the Szechuan dead on the east and north China war front, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, and many other Chinese leaders sent scrolls of respect and condolence. Messages or drawings were sent by many schoolchildren.

One picture drawn by a little girl attracted no little attention. It was a very simple one, showing father selling liberty bonds, mother at home sewing for the comfort of a Chinese soldier on the front, sister serving as a Red Cross nurse, and brother taking up arms.—(C.I.C.).

CONCERT IN AID
OF WAR
WOUNDED

A fairly large audience attended the Hong Kong Students' Relief Association's charity concert in the Tai Ping Theatre last night.

The function, which was held to raise funds in aid of the Service Corps for the war wounded, was helped in its success by the appearance of several famous artists, including Mr. Ma Sze-tsang.

It is anticipated that the first batch of the Service Corps will be dispatched to the front by the end of July.

Below is the programme and though all the items were well received, it is perhaps not invidious to make special mention of Mr. Ma Sze-tsang's "Comedy," the Association's "Flying General," and the amusing "Man and Maid-servant in Love" featuring Yip Yan-po and Miss Lee Yi-lin.

PROGRAMME

1. Overture.
2. National Anthem (Chinese Harmonica).
3. Chairman's speech (Lee Ching-lu).
4. Flying General (Hong Kong Students' Relief Association).
5. Man and Maid-servant in Love (Yip Yan-po, Miss Li Yee-lin, etc.).
6. Vocal Solo (Miss Chan Wan-shueung).
7. Suffering of a Refugee (Miss Lee Yee-lin Yiu Ping, etc.).
8. A Mad Barber (Mr. Wang Sau-lin, Mr. Yeung Kwan-hap, etc.).
9. Hula Hula Dance (Mr. Wong Sau-lin, Mr. Yip Yan-po, etc.).
10. A Country Folk's Trick (Double Seven Dramatic Society).
11. Comedy (Mr. Ma Sze-tsang).
12. Reunion (Double Seven Dramatic Society).

FEES FOR HONOURS AND DIGNITIES

FURTHER ABOLITIONS PROPOSED

The Committee on Fees and Duties payable to public funds on the grant of honours and dignities, who, in their interim report, proposed the abolition of the fees and stamp duties payable to public funds on the creation of peerage and baronetcies and the conferment of knighthoods, make further proposals in their final report, issued recently (Cmd. 5767, 6d.net). Sir Claud Schuster was chairman, and the committee recommended:—

That the existing charges on appointment or promotion by letters patent or warrant to offices under the Crown should be abolished.

That charges should continue to be made on the grant of special privileges by the Crown, which partake of the nature of licences to practise, and that these charges in the aggregate should be maintained at their present level.

That charges should continue to be made on the grant by the Crown of certain honorific privileges, &c., to individuals or to public bodies, and that these charges should be less than at present by the amount of the existing stamp duty.

They propose that legislative alterations be made to give effect to these proposals, and that the procedure in dealing with applications for the conveyance of land in the Channel Islands and in dealing with warrants, &c., should be simplified.

"SURVIVAL OF THE FIST" With regard to the charges respecting appointments by letters patent or warrant, the report states:—"There seems to us no reason why the Chancellor of the Exchequer or the Postmaster-General should be required to pay charges to the Exchequer, on receiving his appointment, simply because the appointment is made by letters patent; other appointments to Ministerial offices are made by handing over the seals of office, and no charges are payable. We regard these charges as a survival of the past, and as no longer appropriate in modern conditions."

The revenue derived from this source over a period of five years was just over £5,000 a year, so that the maintenance of the fees and duties could not be justified on the ground of loss of revenue. With regard to the continuation of the charges on the grant of special privileges by the Crown,

CHINA APPEALS TO WORLD'S CONSCIENCE

Appealing to the conscience of the world, the Chinese Government in a note dated June 1 expressed the earnest wish that, on humanitarian if on no other grounds, members of the League would take such urgent and effective measures as would make Japan cease the wholesale slaughter of human beings by aerial bombardments.

The note was addressed to the Secretary-General by Mr. Hoo Chi-tsai, Director of the Permanent Office of the Chinese Delegation to the League of Nations, with the request that it be communicated to members of the League and of the Special Advisory Committee.

Continuing his description of the present situation regarding the bombing of open towns, the note points out that since the beginning of Japanese military aggression in China not a day has passed without Japanese aircraft severely bombing Chinese towns and inflicting heavy loss to civilian life.

SAVAGE CRUELTY

Recently Japanese aeroplanes had continuously raided Canton, one of the most populous cities in China, and deliberately bombed and machine-gunned residential sections of the city far from any military objectives, killing and wounding several thousand non-combatants, including a great number of women and children.

The action was described as savagely cruel, creating scenes that were indescribably appalling. The Chinese note also recalled that on September 28, 1937, the Assembly of the League of Nations, by a resolution declared that no excuse could be found for the aerial bombardment of open towns in China by Japanese aircraft, which had aroused horror and indignation throughout the world, and solemnly condemned such action.

The bombing of Canton at present had proved even more daring, barbarous and disastrous than any of the previous visitations by Japanese aircraft. It was certain that if the Japanese were allowed to go their own way such air raids would yet be repeated over Canton and other cities with even more terrible loss to human life.

Mr. Mao Ju-tsai, Magistrate of Li-yang district near Nanking, was recently executed by the Japanese military for submitting misleading reports, says a dispatch to the "Standard." Ever since his appointment by the "Reformed Government" a few months ago, it is also reported, Mr. Mao had aroused public discontent in Li-yang by a regime of heavy taxation.

APPLICATION OF JAPANESE
MOBILISATION

Extends To Mandated
Pacific Islands

CHINA CALLS

LEAGUE'S ATTENTION

Dr. Wellington Koo, Chinese Ambassador in Paris, sent a note on June 3 to the Secretary-General of the League of Nations calling attention to the fact that the Japanese National Mobilisation Bill, which entered into force on May 5, applied also to the Japanese mandated islands in the Pacific.

This fact, he pointed out, seemed to be contrary to the purpose for which the mandate system had been instituted, since according to Article 22 of the Covenant the territories under mandate must be administered in the interests of the indigenous population.

He requested that the matter be referred to the competent organs of the League for consideration, since it involved a question of principle of the greatest importance to the welfare of the indigenous population and the cause of general peace.

He further requested that his letter be communicated to the members of the Assembly, the Council and the Advisory Committee on the Far-Eastern Situation.

INTERNAL AIR SERVICE

It is understood that the F.M.S. Government will shortly grant Wearnes' Internal Air Service a subsidy of $10,000, on the same terms and conditions as the $15,000 allowed by the Straits Settlement Government. This matter, after reference to the Finance Committee, will come up for sanction at the next meeting of the Federal Council.

It is also understood that the daily service to Ipoh will be resumed in the near future.

WE ARE READY TO DEFEND OURSELVES

Mr. Hore-Bellisha, the War Minister, speaking at the Liberal National Party conference recently said:

"We have done marvels in rearmament and the country is ready to defend itself."

We had had, he said, to spend a vast sum of money on rearmament, which is now approaching £1,000,000 a day.

"We are meeting that bill, and we are spending £50,000,000 a year more on the social services. That achievement is remarkable — to have redressed the bankruptcy of the nation and to have made it strong."

"It should be realised in Britain, as well as abroad, what had been done."

"We have 181,000 volunteers in the Territorial Army as compared with 138,000 in 1936. The same story of progress can be told about the Regular Army. The number of recruits taken in April and May this year was 8,630, as compared with 3,789 in the corresponding period of last year."

Most of the Japanese troops originally operating in east Honan have been transferred to Shansi as their advance on the Luanghai front has been halted, partly by the present flood, states a report from Tientsin.

ENGINE DEFECT CAUSES A FORCED LANDING

No Passengers Injured

Paris, July 1. The three-engined Bloch plane employed in the regular air service from Algiers to Antananarivo, in Madagascar has been forced to land, owing to an engine defect, in the forest between Fort Archambaud and Bangui in the French Equatorial-Africa, according to despatches received here which add that nobody was injured in the course of the landing.

The position of the plane, carrying seven occupants including four passengers, is given as 3 degrees 20 minutes north latitude and 16 degrees 10 minutes east longitude.

SHENSI'S PART IN CAMPAIGN OF RESISTANCE

Gen. Chiang Ting-wen Reveals Facts To Soviet Journalist

Sian, July 1. Mr. V. N. Rogoff, director of the China Bureau of the Soviet official Tass News Agency, who arrived in Sian from Hankow by air on June 28, called on General Chiang Ting-wen, Chairman of the Shensi Provincial Government, yesterday.

During the interview General Chiang informed Mr. Rogoff that Shensi is giving full attention to increase of production of foodstuffs to meet war-time demand. He said that there was a bumper wheat and cotton output for the current year.

Shensi, he added, is also taking care of wounded soldiers and war and flood refugees. Large numbers of wounded soldiers are receiving medical attention in the provincial hospitals and a comprehensive plan has been mapped out for the relief of refugees who are continually pouring into the province from Kaileng, Chengchow, and other war or flood affected areas.

Mr. Rogoff will stay here for a few days during which he will visit scenic and historic spots. (Central News).

General Li Commended For Gallant Defence Of Lowangchai

Hankow, July 1. General Li Han-yun, commanding two Kwangtung divisions on the Lungshai front last month, was commended by the military authorities here for the defence of Lowangchai, a strategic point on the railway between Kaileng and Lanfeng, thereby removing the threat of the Doihara division in attacking the Peking-Hankow Railway at Hsuehchang.

Lowangchai was actually occupied by the Japanese who were dislodged by General Li Han-yun's division before the general retreat from Kaileng.

HANGCHOW IS THREATENED BY GUERRILLAS

Clash Takes Place Close To City

Siaoshan, July 1. A strong Chinese guerrilla column is reported to be vigorously pressing on Hangchow.

A clash took place between the guerrillas and the Japanese at Fengshan, 20 kilometres north of Hangchow, on June 29. After a two-hour battle the Japanese were defeated and withdrew to Chien-kiao and Kunshengkiao, in the immediate suburbs of Hangchow, leaving about 30 dead.

It is stated that another guerrilla column is advancing on Tsing-shan and Tungshiang, about 40 and 50 kilometres respectively north-east of Hangchow.

Meanwhile, Chinese guerrilla units operating in Hangchow Bay are advancing on Kashing and Sia-shih on the Shanghai-Hangchow Railway. (Central News).

DISRUPT TELEGRAPH LINES

Sinteng, July 1. Japanese telegraph communications between Hangchow and Fuyang, 20 kilometres southwest, have been disrupted as many telegraph wires and poles have been torn down by Chinese guerrillas. (Central News).

JAPANESE LONG FOR PEACE

Chengchow, July 1. A package of 500 letters, believed to have been dropped by a Japanese plane, was recently found by Chinese troops in north Hsueh. All the letters, addressed to soldiers at the front from their homes, contained anti-war sentiments. (Central News).

SOVIET ARMY LEADER

General Blucher, High Commander of the Russian troops in the East.

Ten Thousand Guerillas Near Shanghai

Shanghai, July 1. The number of Chinese guerrillas in the vicinity of Shanghai has been increased to 10,000, and this explains the frequent gunfire heard in the vicinity of this city. Japanese troops are using one-pounders in shelling villages and hamlets in Hungjiao and Shaonan-hsiang districts, many of which have been razed on the pretext that Chinese irregulars are hiding therein.

Seeking better protection, Japanese women and children have moved from Hongkew, garrisoned by the Japanese Landing Party, to the International Settlement. (International).

CANTON TO GO VEGETARIAN

Canton, July 1. In an official order issued today, General Wu Te-chen, Chairman of the Kwangtung Provincial Government, asked the entire Kwangtung populace to take a vegetable diet on July 7 in observance of the first anniversary of the Sino-Japanese hostilities. He also ordered the prohibition of slaughter of cattle on that day. (Central News).

U.S.S. AUGUSTA

Shanghai, July 1. It is learned that the U.S.S. Augusta, flagship of the United States Asiatic Fleet, is leaving here in the forenoon tomorrow for North China ports, including Tsingtao and Chefoo.

Admiral H. E. Yarnell, Commander-in-Chief, who recently returned from an inspection trip on the Yangtze is said to be accompanying the flagship. (Reuters).

AIR DEFENCE OF KWONGCHOWAN

Hankow, July 1. Chinese papers here report that the arrival of a senior French naval officer in Kwangchowwan to direct the air defence of the leased territory coincided with the arrival of planes for the protection of Indo-China.

French warships have left Hankow waters, according to the report, and only four Japanese warships are in the vicinity of the Island. (International).

JAPANESE CABINET DEVICES MEANS TO INCREASE REVENUES

For Military Expenses

Shanghai, July 1. Envisaging no immediate prospects of liquidating the war in China, the Japanese Cabinet held a meeting yesterday to devise means to increase revenues for military expenses, according to a Tokyo report.

Mr. Selhin Ikeda, the Finance Minister, proposed several measures to conserve funds to carry on protracted hostilities. One measure was that the banks shall suspend payment on all deposits except bona fide transactions and money for living expenses, while another scheme was that an investigation be made into the private surplus money of all big businesses with a view to requisitioning them as funds to be repaid at the end of the war.

LUNCH SCORES

London, July 1. Lunch scores of cricket matches played today areas follows:—Worcestershire 118 and 43 for 0 v. Yorkshire 359 for 9 declared. Lancashire 295 v. Hampshire 128 and 112 for 4. Nottingham 232 and 227 v. Somerset 236 and 7 for 1. (Reuters Bulletin).

JAPAN CHARGES SOVIET

Taking More Active Steps In China

Tokyo, July 1. The charge that the Soviet Government is taking more active steps in China was made this morning by a Japanese Foreign Office spokesman who, however, was unable to give any concrete details.

The spokesman alleged that Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek has sent an emissary to Moscow to see M. Voroshiloff and he interpreted the reported appointment of the Chinese communist, Wang Ming, as a member of the Hankow defence council as one of the results of Dr. Sun Fo's visit to Moscow.

Replying to a question the spokesman said he had no reason to suppose that a Sino-Soviet secret military pact had been concluded and he doubted the accuracy of Japanese press reports that a meeting had been arranged between the Generalissimo and Marshal Blucher to which Japanese papers are giving much prominence.

The spokesman concluded that he doubted whether any mediatory move in the Sino-Japanese conflict will come from Germany "unless we approach Berlin which I do not think is possible." (Reuters).

CHINESE RETAKE YEHJENSHAN

Kiukiang, July 1. Launching a fierce assault on the Japanese positions, Chinese troops in western Anhwei have recaptured the strategic height of Yehjenshan north of Chienhsan yesterday.

The scattered Japanese troops have retreated to Chienhsan where defence works are hastily erected.

At the same time, a Japanese attack along the Chienhsan-Taihu highway on the Chinese positions at Wangklapou and Chenklakiao was repulsed by vigorous Chinese resistance. (Central News).

CHINESE CIVILIANS ARMY

Chengchow, July 1. Driven to despair by Japanese forcible seizure of their new wheat crop, large numbers of the farming populace in south Hsueh have armed themselves against the invaders.

At Taming, the Japanese troops have been surrounded in a desperate attempt to break through the Chinese cordon. About 100 of them in more than twenty armoured cars launched a furious assault on the Chinese positions and succeeded in escaping towards Shun-tien on the night of June 29. (Central News).

"THERE WILL BE NO PEACE"

Tokyo, July 1. All rumours of the endeavours allegedly being made by the Powers to mediate in the Sino-Japanese conflict were denied here today by the Japanese War Minister, Gen. Araki.

Such rumours indicate, declared Gen. Araki, that neither Hankow nor the foreign countries comprehend the true nature of the Japanese military aims.

"There will be no peace as long as the Chiang Kai-shek Government remains in office," emphasized Gen. Araki, who went on to declare that the official Japanese declaration of January to the effect that Japan no longer recognized the Chiang Kai-shek Government as partner in the negotiations was final and definite. (Transocean).

GEN. HUANG TAO IN SWATOW

PRESENCE STEADIES POPULAR MIND

Swatow, July 1. Lieut.-General Huang Tao, Officer Commanding in East Kwangtung, arrived here this morning to make an inspection of the defence works. His presence here is having a steadying effect on the public, for when he was Garrison Commandant of Amoy he suppressed all reactionary activities of Japanese romins and Formosans.

The 157th Kwangtung Division under General Huang was transferred to Swatow about three months ago.

Many refugees have escaped here from Namao Island. Most of them are well-to-do farmers, fishermen and those connected with the salt industry. They have fled to avoid being called upon to serve the new puppet regime being set up on the island. (International).

CHINESE FINGER ATTACK

Kiukiang, July 1. A pincer movement launched by heavy Chinese reinforcements rushed to Matang and a strong Chinese column which recaptured Hsiangshan on June 28 is proceeding apace.

Japanese vanguards which broke through a section of the Chinese defence line at Matang have been enveloped by the Chinese at Tsing-shanpa, which lies between Matang and Pengtseh. Furious fighting is raging there as the Chinese are making a determined effort to wipe out the Japanese.

USE POISON GAS

Extremely heavy casualties were suffered by the Japanese yesterday. As a last resort to avert total annihilation, the Japanese allegedly used poison gas, killing many Chinese.

The boom at Matang remains intact. Japanese warships which moved up near the boom are continually shelling the Chinese on the banks to cover the advance of their infantry units.

Heavy fighting, meanwhile, is still going on around Hsiangshan and Siangkow, both east of Matang.

Chinese guerrillas made a surprise attack on Anking yesterday. The Japanese garrison in the city brought their artillery into action, firing heavily on the Chinese to prevent them from approaching the city gates. (Central News).

JAPANESE LOSSES NEAR LINFEN

Sian, July 1. About 800 Japanese troops, with more than 10 artillery pieces, moving southward from Linfen in Shanxi were waylaid by Chinese soldiers recently. In a fierce encounter, the Japanese suffered heavy casualties.

On June 27, between 400 and 500 Japanese troops who were attempting to push westward were also attacked and beaten off by the Chinese. (Central News).

QUININE HAS SAVED MILLIONS OF LIVES

Two French Benefactors Of Humanity

The most imposing funeral monument in the world is that which the French erected in Paris in honour of Napoleon. Not far from that spot is a second monument which was erected in memory of two men who did far more for the whole world than the great Emperor.

This statue, which is on the Boulevard Saint-Michel, commemorates two French chemists, Pelletier and Caventon. In September 1820, these scientists made a discovery which has saved the lives of more people than Napoleon caused to perish in all of his wars.

Before 1820, quinine was unknown and the treatment of malaria was a most difficult and often a hopeless task. Patients were given doses of bitter cinchona bark, without any standardisation so that nobody could tell exactly how much of the active substance was taken, and those who took this medicine were not always cured. So the whole world stood in dire need of a better remedy, for in the tropics, millions of people died of malaria. Also in the United States malaria worked great havoc amongst the population of the South-Eastern States.

RESEARCH WORK
Pelletier and Caventon took up research work on cinchona bark. After long and exhaustive experiments, they announced on September 1, 1820, that they had discovered a substance to which they had given the name quinine. And they described to the whole world how any chemist could extract quinine from cinchona bark.

This discovery brought about a change in the lives of millions of people exposed to malaria. We owe to these French scientists our ability to go into any chemist's shop today throughout the world and purchase a cheap remedy costing only a few pence, which is a certain cure for this disease.

PROPHYLAXIS
The Malaria Commission of the League of Nations recommends for prophylaxis a daily dose of six grains during the whole malarial season, and for treatment a daily dose of 15 to 20 grains during five to seven days. After-treatments are omitted, but all relapses are treated in the same way.

Benefactors such as Pelletier and Caventon really have no need of statues. Nevertheless, the world has thought otherwise, and this monument was erected by public subscription.

APPEAL SUCCEEDS

A Juryman Is Not A Witness

"The notes may have been forgeries" but the fact that they were forgeries was not proved at the trial; the appeal is therefore allowed," said the Chief Justice, S.S. Mr. Justice McElwaine, recently in the Straits Settlement Court of Appeal in the appeal of Wong Kiang Chin against a sentence of four years' rigorous imprisonment for possessing forged currency notes.

Mr. Justice McElwaine said Wong was convicted at the March Singapore Assizes of possessing 49 forged ten-dollar Straits currency notes, knowing them to be forged and intending to use them as genuine. "It was suggested that the jury saw the notes and could judge for themselves that the notes were forgeries, we think this is a dangerous and unsound suggestion," said the Chief Justice.

"In the first place we do not know whether the jury examined the notes and formed their own opinion or whether they concluded that the notes were forged because the report, which should not have been in evidence, stated that they were."

"In the second place, even if it were shown that the jury examined the notes and found them to be forgeries, there would be nothing on the record to show on what evidence they found this. A juryman should not be regarded as a witness unless he gives evidence."

MACAO RACE MEETING

George Potts Memorial Cup Main Event For July Races

By "Last Quarter"

The Macao Jockey Club are holding their final race meeting of the first half of the year tomorrow, and this will be the last occasion, until September, for punters to indulge in their favourite sport. With the holidays over the week-end there should be a large crowd taking advantage of the break to visit the Portuguese Colony and it is anticipated that the attendance will be greater than usual.

The programme consists of seven events including the usual Ladies Sprint. The main race will be the George Potts Memorial Cup, a fitting remembrance of the late Chairman of the Club, who did so much to popularise racing in Macao. The event is open to subscription ponies of the Macao Jockey Club and has attracted a good number of entries. A special $1 Cash Sweep is being conducted in connection with this race and from reports received, the sales have been very brisk.

The meeting opens with a five furlong sprint for non-winning Macao sibs and is confined to Novice Jockeys. Rothsay Bay is a possible winner here as this pony appeared to be coming on judging from his recent outings. Shih Yin Grand seems to be on the downward trend and has been rather disappointing of late, but may still secure the remaining place. Morning Tip, if fit to start, is worth considering as this pony is quite a good sprinter.

RACE COURSE HANDICAP

There is really nothing outstanding in this six furlong race and once again my choice is Mongolian Cat in spite of it carrying 158 lbs. He won fairly easily at the last meeting and an additional 8 lbs. should not hinder his chances to any appreciable extent. African Cat is undoubtedly the next best and should fill second place. The others I am afraid are fairly outclassed and it is probable that National Triumph will be good enough to occupy the minor position.

TURF HANDICAP (1ST SECTION)

Astrik has an exceptionally good chance in this five furlong sprint and will be difficult to beat. This pony is a fast starter and the distance is eminently suitable. Emergency Call should give Astrik a close race especially if this chestnut runs true, in the straight. Double Chance is a fair performer but carrying top weight somewhat diminishes his chances. Wenning is one of those worth following for big money, while Sahara Star is also a fair performer and quite useful over the distance.

CHOI WA HUI HANDICAP

This six furlong sprint will find the public making Araxy (158 lbs.) the favourite and despite the weight I think this game racer is just about good enough to win. Chief of position will be furnished by Cuban Love and Mac's Adventure. The latter, if anywhere near Annual Meeting form, and with the light weight to look after, will be very close. A good outsider is National Anthem and at 143 lbs. he looks an attractive proposition.

TURF HANDICAP (2ND SECTION)

The task of spotting the winner here is not an easy one as most of the entries have nothing in the way of racing form to recommend them by. The distance is only five furlongs and I think Cleve will ultimately carry off the event. Cricketer is also a fairly good thing in this field. Lucky Seven was well thought of in his last two outings and did not do too badly, and should secure a place. Labour Day and National Triumph are about the best of the other entrants.

GEORGE POTTS MEMORIAL CUP

This is the classic event of the day and I fully expect to see Merry Doer finish well up. Fairy Auk ran exceptionally well to win at the last meeting but the distance is over one mile, which should be in favour of Merry Doer. My next choice is Victory Life, who should run the other quite close, but this pony is not too reliable. Merry Maker (150 lbs.) is a game racer but I am afraid the weight will prove his undoing. In case Rothsay Bay makes a second appearance and is saddled for this event, he should not be entirely neglected as he is a game battler and has only 135 lbs. to look after.

LADIES SPRINT

This will bring the programme to a conclusion and here punters will have to do their own picking as the entries are not known at the time of going to press.

AUSTRALIANS WIN BY WIDE MARGIN

Derbyshire Not Impressive

London, July 1.

The Australian cricket tourists concluded their match with Derbyshire yesterday, winning by an innings and 234 runs.

In reply to Derbyshire's score of 151 (Worthington 67, F. A. Ward 5 for 45), Australia made 441 for four wickets before declaring. W. A. Brown, who hit up 208 not out in the Second Test at Lord's, scored 265 not out, the highest innings of his career. He took six hours to make his runs, hitting a six and 30 boundaries.

C. L. Badcock hit up 88. Going in again, Derbyshire were skittled out for 56. M. G. Waite captured five wickets for 40 runs. At one time he had sent back four for only 10 runs. Ward took three for eight.

GLAMORGAN v. SUSSEX

At Swansea, Sussex defeated Glamorgan by an innings and 132 runs.

Sussex compiled 449 in their only visit to the wicket. James Langridge contributed 158. In spite of this good score, Mercer, the Glamorgan bowler, was able to take seven wickets for 101 runs.

Glamorgan scored 173 in their first innings, and in the follow-on they made 144, Duffield taking four wickets for 27 runs.

SURREY v. OXFORD

At the Oval, the two-day match between Surrey and Oxford ended in a draw.

Surrey scored 395 (Fishlock 185) and Oxford replied with 377 (Walford 114, Watts six for 60).

ESSEX v. GLOUCESTER

At Brentwood, Essex defeated Gloucester by an innings and runs.

Gloucester were all out for 56 runs in their first innings. Nichols taking six for 24, and 173 in the second, Nichols (this time sending back five batsmen for 51). Essex totalled 309 in their knock, O'Connor making 130.

KENT v. LEICESTER

At Tunbridge Wells, Leicester defeated Kent by 387 runs.

Leicester scored 195 in their first knock, Wright taking five for 81. Kent, however, fared even worse and were all out for 58. Smith capturing five wickets for 29 and Geary four for 19.

In the second innings, Leicester declared at 337 for seven. C. S. Dempster hitting up 142.

Kent fared little better and were out for 87. Smith causing the damage with seven wickets for 40 runs.

M.C.C. v. CAMBRIDGE

At Lord's, the two-day match between the M.C.C. and Cambridge was drawn.

Cambridge scored 370 and 192 for five wickets declared. Thompson contributing 108 not out.

The M.C.C. scored 270 for eight wickets declared (Kay five for 89) and 236 for nine wickets. (Reuter)

INTERESTING POSITION IN BASEBALL LEAGUE

Recreio Now Hard On Heels Of Chinese For Honours

THIS AFTERNOON'S MATCH

BY PILAT

The first major upset of the season occurred on Saturday last when Recreio trounced the much-fancied Chinese nine to the tune of ten runs to one. The Chinese were outplayed in all departments and on the day's showing one could hardly consider them in the role of potential champions.

The Portuguese played brilliantly throughout and made no errors and their fielding was the highlight of the game. The Volunteers came a cropper in their race for the runners-up position when on Sunday, they lost to Recreio by the narrow margin of one run.

Alvares started on the slab for Recreio but was relieved by Pereira, and Bowen did mound duty throughout for the Volunteers.

RECREIO CLOSE TO CHINESE. Recreio, by virtue of their two successive victories, are now hard on the heels of the Chinese with one match in hand. The Chinese have still one match to play against the Volunteers. A win for the former will give them the pennant, but if they lose they may probably have to play-off with either Recreio or Mindanao, providing these two teams win their remaining games.

However, a good fight should ensue between Recreio and Min-

The following is the League Table up-to-date:—

GOOD GAMES IN STORE

Taken on the whole, it is a very interesting position indeed and in the next two weeks or so we should witness some very good games.

At a meeting on Friday last, it was decided to hold this year's International series on a league basis, each team to play each other once.

It was also decided that in view of the poor financial position of the League, as a result of low gate receipts, the proceeds from the series should be retained by the League instead of donating them to charity.

The following teams will participate in the International series: America, China, India, Portugal and the Philippine Islands.

GERMAN HELICOPTER

FLIES 143 MILES

A world distance record for helicopters is claimed for the helicopter invented by Professor Heinrich

Focke, which was flown recently for 143 miles, from near Bremen to the sporting aerodrome at Rangsdorf, near Berlin, by Herr Bode, chief pilot of Focke-Achgelis and Co.

Last July the Focke helicopter broke all previous international helicopter records with a distance return flight of 50 miles. This record was improved on in the autumn by Flight Captain FrauHanna Reitsch, with a straight flight of 87 miles.The machine is a double helicopter, capable of easy verticalascent and descent, of hovering, and of flight backwards. Its twothree-bladed air screws are arranged on either side of the 160h.p. Brandenburg motors which are fitted on the central chassis.Though not the only German helicopter, it has far surpassed any of the others in performance.

NOTICE TO CONSIGNEES

THE M.V. "HOPEPEAK" having arrived from New York and Ports of call. Consignees of Cargo are hereby notified that their goods are being landed and placed at their risk into the Hong Kong and Kowloon Wharf & Godown Company's godowns at Kowloon, where delivery may be obtained as soon as the goods are landed.

Optional cargo will not be landed here, unless notice has been given 48 hours prior to vessel's arrival, but carried on from port to port to the final port of call to which the option extends.

No Claims will be admitted after the Goods have left the Godowns, and all Goods remaining undelivered after the 4th July, 1938, will be subject to Rent.

All broken, chafed, and damaged Goods are to be left in the Godowns, where they will be examined on 30th June 1938, at 10 a.m., by our Surveyor Capt. Walter C. Weston.

To comply with the General Bonded Warehouse Regulations consignees must have a Revenue Officer in attendance when damaged dutiable goods are examined.

All claims must reach us before the 4th Aug., 1938, or they will not be recognized.

No Insurance will be effected.
 Bills of Lading will be countersigned by JEBSEN & CO., Agents.

Sharp Conflict Of Views In Japanese Army Circles

MILITARY STRATEGY IN YANGTSE

Hankow, July 1. According to the Sao Tang Pao, a sharp conflict prevails in Japanese Army circles in Tokyo as a result of a divergence of views between the old and the new factions with General Katsuragi Utsuki, the Foreign Minister, as the centre of the trouble.

The old faction supports the 70-year-old General, while the young faction opposes him. Anti-Soviet posters appear in Tokyo as a veiled attack on the Foreign Minister.

United States Pronounced The Scapegoat

BATTLESHIP TONNAGE LIMIT

London, July 1. The United States was pronounced the scapegoat in the decision by Britain, France and America to build bigger battleships by the entire press this morning which declares that France and Britain were compelled to accept the 45,000-ton limit because America refused to come down to a lower figure.

The diplomatic correspondent to the Times states somewhat "sardoniously" that satisfaction could be gained from the fact that Britain and France had finally decided to build up to the limit.

It is also pointed out that no objections were anticipated or received from Germany so that America alone bears the responsibility for putting bigger battleships in the ocean.

Declaring that indications of a series of armaments races such as that preceding 1914 are not yet present, the paper points to the threat in this direction which is embodied in the decision to increase tonnage.

The marine correspondent of the Daily Telegraph reports that no decision has yet been reached on the question as to whether the Japanese are to be officially informed of the result of the naval conference. (Transoceanic).

COURT MARTIAL IN BUCHAREST

Leading Adherents Of "Iron Guard" Party Sentenced

Bucharest, July 1. A court martial here passed sentence this morning on the various leading adherents of the dissolved Party headed by Codreanu and known as the "Iron Guard" or the "Everything for the Fatherland."

The Deputy Leader of the Party, Clime, and fourteen others convicted of conspiracy against the security of the State were sentenced to seven years' imprisonment, three others accused were sentenced to five years and a priest, who recanted his former profession of political faith, got off with the relatively light sentence of twelve months.

Two defendants, including Prince Alexander Cantaguzino who had fled the country, were sentenced by default to nine years' imprisonment. Only one defendant was acquitted. (Transoceanic).

Grave Unrest In Manchuria

NATIVE TROOPS MUTINY

Tientsin, July 1. Serious unrest has broken out in Manchuria among native troops who are defying the Japanese, according to reports received here. One detachment of Manchukuo troops on the south bank of the Sungari River recently mutinied and disarmed Japanese troops sent to watch them.

Heavy fighting was in progress yesterday between Manchukuo and Japanese troops in north Hellungkiang near the Soviet border.

Japanese troops in North China are being rushed back to Manchuria to cope with the situation. (International).

FRANCO'S ENVOY

Duke of Alba, General Franco's Ambassador in London.

GUERRILLAS FORCE LINE ENTRY

Many Japanese Die In Street Combats

Chengchow, July 1. Descending on the Japanese garrison at Lin, scene of several battles in east Shantung two months ago, Chinese guerrillas in a night raid forced an entry into the city and engaged the Japanese in sanguinary street fighting on June 28.

After killing and wounding a large number of the enemy forces, the Chinese guerrillas returned to their posts outside the city the following morning.

During their momentary occupation of a number of important buildings in the city, the Chinese set to fire large stores of Japanese provisions and military supplies.

Sinai, strategic town in south Shantung, is still under siege by the Chinese forces, Japanese reinforcements despatched from Tientsin to the rescue of the beleaguered troops at Sinai having been waylaid and scattered on June 28 before reaching the town.

Forty Japanese soldiers, it is reported, were killed during the encounter on their way to Sinai. (Central News).

JAPANESE PLANES RAID YINGTAK

Canton, July 1. Yingtak station on the Canton-Hankow railway was raided by nine Japanese planes which conducted their routine bombing at 12.30 o'clock this afternoon.

Altogether more than twenty bombs were dropped causing damage to the rails.

The raiders, taking off from their base at sea off Chungshan, took a northward course through Saltun and Whampoa to cut across the Canton-Hankow railway at Linkongchow and then followed the rail line to attack Yingtak.

After the raid on Yingtak, the raiders retraced their course southward and passed through Tsingyun, where they did some cruising work. Flying at a low altitude, the dropping of the enemy machines was clearly audible in Canton while they were above Saltun. (Central News).

GENERAL LUSHKOV

Tokyo, July 1. The Soviet GPU leader who escaped into Manchuria and surrendered to the guards is not General Samorovich but General Lushkov, according to a report received here from Hsinking this morning.

General Lushkov is declared to have stated during cross-examination that he fled from the Soviet Union because he feared the new purge which is now in progress. (Transoceanic).
